100 WINS

The Orioles won more than 100 games in each of 3 straight seasons—'69 (109), '70 (108) and '71 (101). Only two other clubs have achieved that feat in the history of major league baseball: the Philadelphia A's of '20–'30–'31 (104-102-107) and the St. Louis Cardinals in '42–'43–'44 (106-105-105).

O'S RECORD IS BEST IN MAJORS

Over the Last 30 Years ('57 thru '86)

During the last 30 years ('57 thru '86), the Orioles have won more games than any other club in the major leagues and have also compiled the best won-lost percentage.

Over those 3 decades the O's are 2671-2073 (.563) which gives them a 22 game lead over the 2nd place Yankees and a 69½ game lead over the 3rd place Dodgers. This, despite the fact the O's have fallen a composite 3 games under .500 over the past 3 seasons.

In the first 2 Baltimore seasons ('54 & '55), the Orioles were 111-197 (.360). They improved to 69-85 (.448) in '56 and really began to jell in '57 (76-76), their first .500 season in Baltimore.

Listed below are the records of the 16 clubs that have been in the big leagues during the entire 30 year period:

1. Orioles	2671-2073, .563	9. Giants	2436-2326, .512
2. Yankees	2654-2100, .558	10. White Sox	2411-2344, .507

In 18 years of divisional play, initiated in 1969, the Orioles have also paced the major leagues in both total wins (1645) and winning percentage (.580), some 71 games better than the runner-up Yankees and 74½ up over the 3rd place Reds:

1. Orioles	1645-1193, .580	13. Mets	1400-1450, .491

Henry J. Peters
Executive Vice President General Manager

EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS

Edward Bennett Williams, a world-renowned Washington attorney, is in his 8th season as the Orioles' owner-chairman-president since buying the ballclub November 1, '79.

In his first four years in that capacity the O's logged three 2nds and a world championship. Over the last three seasons the results have not been as rewarding despite the vigorous and dynamic efforts of Mr. Williams and his able general manager Hank Peters.

However, be assured, to Mr. Williams losing will never be an acceptable alternative. The 66-year old Hartford, Connecticut native has been a winner throughout a brilliant career that has spanned some 40 years in the courtroom and has included 20 years as president of the Washington Redskins.

Mr. Williams, the founder and senior partner of the Washington law firm, Williams & Connolly, was a 1941 summa cum laude graduate of Holy Cross College. He served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II. He attended Georgetown University Law School where he graduated in 1945 and was admitted to the D.C. Bar. He has been a Washington-area resident ever since.

The father of seven children (Joe, Ellen, Bennett, Ned, Dana, Tony and Kimberly), he lives with his wife, the former Agnes Anne Neill (also a Georgetown University Law School graduate), and family in Potomac, Maryland.

Mr. Williams taught Criminal Law and Evidence at Georgetown Law School from 1946 to 1958; was guest professor of American Criminal Law at the University of Frankfurt in West Germany in '54; and, in 1971, was visiting lecturer at Yale University Law School where he taught Constitutional Litigation. He holds honorary degrees from 14 universities.

He was chairman of the American Bar Association Special Committee on Crime Prevention and Control from 1970 to 1972. In 1966 the D.C. Bar Association presented him with its "Lawyer of the Year" award . . . He is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and was a member of its Board of Regents from 1968 to 1972.

By appointment of the Chief Justice of the United States in March 1965, Mr. Williams served on the U.S. Judicial Conference Advisory Committee on Federal Rules of Evidence until 1974 and, from 1971 to 1974, on the Chief Justice's Committee on Court Facilities and Design.

From 1971 to 1978 he served as chairman of the Judicial Nominating Commission for the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland.

By appointment of President Gerald Ford, Mr. Williams served on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board in 1976 and 1977. In 1977 President Jimmy Carter appointed him a consultant to the National Security Agency (NSA). In November 1980, President-elect Ronald Reagan appointed Mr. Williams as one of three prominent Democrats to serve on the Foreign Policy Advisory Board to assist in the presidential transition. From 1982 to 1985, he again served on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, and is presently General Counsel to the Board.

Mr. Williams was treasurer of the Democratic National Committee from 1974 to 1977; has served as general counsel of Georgetown University since 1949; is chairman of the board of trustees of Holy Cross College, and is general counsel of the Motion Picture Association of America.

HENRY J. (HANK) PETERS

Hank Peters has been the Orioles' executive vice-president/general manager for the past 11 seasons, since he signed the first of three five year contracts in November 1975 . . . At that time, he replaced J. Frank Cashen, who had resigned to join the Carling National Brewery.

Hank's contract was extended for another five years (thru '84) after the '79 season and was extended again 3 years ago for another 5 year term (thru '89).

A veteran of 40 years in professional baseball, Hank has twice earned major league "Executive of the Year" honors ('79, '83) from THE SPORTING NEWS, and won UPI's major league executive award in '79 as well.

The 62-year old (Sep. 16, '24) St. Louis native has shown an amazing ability to adjust to the abrupt and rapid changes that have affected player-management relations during the past several years . . . It has been an invaluable asset.

Hank came to Baltimore after four years as president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the governing body of minor league baseball). Before accepting that position in December 1971, Hank has spent five years with the Cleveland Indians as vice-president for player personnel.

Prior to that, he had worked with the Kansas City A's for a decade. During his tenure there, he had the distinction of being the last general manager appointed by club-owner Charles O. Finley (who later became his own g.m.). He has also worked with the St. Louis Browns and Cincinnati Reds.

He first broke into baseball in 1946 after serving three years in the U.S. Army in World War II during which he was stationed in England, Germany and Czechoslovakia.

He got his start with the hometown Browns in the minor league department, working for Farm Director Jim McLaughlin, who later served the Orioles in the same capacity (and still lives in Baltimore), and Bill DeWitt, the general manager.

When the franchise was moved to Baltimore in October 1953, Hank took a job as general manager of the independent Burlington, Iowa club in the Class B Three-I League.

After the 1954 season, he joined the new Kansas City A's (who had just moved from Philadelphia) as farm director. He remained in that position thru 1960. In early 1961, following a disagreement with owner Finley, Hank resigned and spent the balance of the season working again for DeWitt (then g.m. at Cincinnati), as farm director of the Reds who went on to win the N.L. pennant that season.

However, in December 1961, he returned to the A's as assistant general manager/farm director. In 1965, he was appointed general manager. During his tenure such future stars as Hall of Famer "Catfish" Hunter, Bert Campaneris, Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando, Joe Rudi, Rick Monday, Gene Tenace and Rollie Fingers were signed and developed in the A's Farm system.

Hank moved to Cleveland in 1966 as a vice-president for player personnel and remained there until he was elected to succeed the retiring National Association President Phil Piton in December 1971 . . . At the time, the National Association was headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, but in September 1973, Hank moved the office to its present site in St. Petersburg, Florida.

He and his wife, Dottie, whom he met while both were working for the Browns, have been married 36 years . . . They have two children: Sharon and Steven, and two grandchildren: Shannon Nicole Torrez, born Dec. 12, '80, and Christopher Henry Peters, born Oct. 16, '83, the day the Orioles won the 1983 World Series.

PRESIDENTIAL VISITS

The Orioles are 0-4 in games in which a President has thrown out the first ball at Memorial Stadium. The O's are 0-3 with President Ronald Reagan present (1st game of '83 World Series and home openers in '84 & '86). They also lost the only game President Jimmy Carter attended, the seventh game of the '79 World Series. No other Presidents have visited Memorial Stadium, although in the first game the O's ever played in Baltimore in '54, Richard Nixon threw out the first ball as Vice President under President Dwight Eisenhower. The O's did win that game, 3-1 over the White Sox (see also "O's first game in Baltimore").

*Major League Record

2 MILLION STREAK SNAPPED: The Orioles failed to reach the 2 million mark in home attendance for the first time since '82, but featured both the largest regular season crowd and largest 4-date series in the club's history (see below). The O's would have become only the 3rd A.L. club to draw 2 million at home for at least 4 straight years (New York did it twice, '47–'50 and '76–'80 and California has a current streak of 5 straight 2 million seasons). The O's drew 1,973,178, 4th best in club history, and the highest ever for a last place club (Houston drew 2,151,470 in '65 and finished 9th out of 10 teams). The O's were over 1 million in home attendance for the 12th straight full season. (Cont. on page 63.)

30 HOME RUN CLUB

Six different Orioles have hit 30 or more home runs in a season 15 different times. Eddie Murray and Boog Powell have each done it 4 times, tying the club's all-time high. Frank Robinson accomplished the feat three times, Jim Gentile twice and Gus Triandos and Ken Singleton once each. Triandos was the first Oriole to achieve that mark when he hit 30 homers in '58, earning him a share of the A.L. record for a catcher that stood for 24 years until Detroit's Lance Parrish broke it in '82.

By Year: 1958–Triandos (30) . . . 1961–Gentile (46) . . . 1962–Gentile (33) . . . 1964–Powell (39) . . . 1966–F. Robinson (49) and Powell (34) . . . 1967–F. Robinson (30) . . . 1969–Powell (37) and F. Robinson (32) . . . 1970–Powell (35) . . . 1979–Singleton (35) . . . 1980–Murray (32) . . . 1982–Murray (32) . . . 1983–Murray (33) . . . 1985–Murray (31).

Frank Robinson is the only Oriole to have led the league outright in homers (49 in '66). Murray tied three others for A.L. top honors with 22 during the abbreviated '81 season.

100 RBI MEN

During the O's first seven years ('54 thru '60), nobody drove in 100 runs . . . Then, in '61, Jim Gentile broke the barrier with gusto while accumulating 141 rbi, still a club record.

Since then, seven different players have driven in 100 runs 17 times; Eddie Murray (5 times); Boog Powell (3 times); Brooks and Frank Robinson, Ken Singleton and Cal Ripken (twice); Lee May (once).

By Year: 1961–Gentile (141) . . . 1964–Brooks (118)* . . . 1966–Frank (122), Powell (109) and Brooks (100) . . . 1969–Powell (121) and Frank (100) . . . 1970–Powell, (114) . . . 1976–May (109) . . . 1979–Singleton (111) . . . 1980–Murray (116) and Singleton (104) . . . 1982–Murray (110) . . . 1983–Murray (111) and Ripken (102) . . . 1984–Murray (110) . . . 1985–Murray (124) and Ripken (110).

NOTE: Murray became the fourth Oriole to lead the American League in runs batted in with 78 in '81.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O's Led Majors Last 6 Years: The O's have led the major leagues (or tied for the lead) in grand slams in each of the past six years: '81 (5); '82 (8); '83 (8—tied with Angels); '84 (8); '85 (7); '86 (7—tied with Angels, Red Sox).

In that span, the O's have hit 43 grand slams while the Angels rank 2nd with 30 followed by Boston (23) and Pittsburgh (20). Over the six years, O's pitchers have yielded only 14 bases loaded home runs, including 2 in '86.

Three in One Game: The Orioles and Texas set a major league record on Aug. 6, '86 when the two teams combined to hit three grand slams in Texas' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit grand slams for the O's, both in the 4th inning. It marked only the 5th time in major league history that one club has hit 2 grand slams in a single inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grand slams in one game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' slam.

Eddie Murray has already hit 14 grand slams in his 10-year career and ranks tied for 8th on baseball's all-time list with Gil Hodges. He is 2nd among active players trailing only Dave Kingman (16). Eddie's lifetime average of one grand slam every 93.68 games (14 in 1,499 gms) is the best in major league history (among those with at least 10 grand slams) ranking just ahead of Lou Gehrig (1/94.08, 23 in 2,164 gms).

Thru the Years: In 33 years ('54–'86), the O's have "out-slammed" their opponents 130-71 (including a 70-32 advantage at Baltimore).

Gentile Hit Record 5 in '81: Jim Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league standard in '61 when he hit 5 bases loaded home runs. The only prior player to reach that total was the Cubs' Ernie Banks in '55.

Two in a Game: Only 7 players have hit two grand slams in one game in baseball history and only 3 have hit them on consecutive at-bats. In both situations, two of them were Orioles: Gentile hit two in a row at Minnesota on May 9, '61 (Metropolitan Stadium off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel), and Frank Robinson did the same on June 26, '70 at RFK Stadium in Washington (off Joe Coleman, Jr. and Joe Grzenda).

Another Oriole who came close was Brooks Robinson who, in 1962 on May 6 (Dodger Stadium) and May 9 (Memorial Stadium), hit bases loaded homers in back-to-back games.

Post-Season Slams-Slugging Pitchers: Only two pitchers have ever hit grand slam home runs in post-season play. Both were Orioles at the time, and both did it in 1970. In game one of the '70 ALCS, Mike Cuellar hit one off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minny) and in the 3rd game of the World Series vs. the Reds, Dave McNally found the range off Wayne Granger (at Baltimore).

The blast by Cuellar was the only ALCS grand slam ever until Don Baylor hit one for the Angels vs. Milwaukee in '82 (off Moose Haas) . . . Only two bases loaded homers have ever been hit in NLCS play: the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker in '77.

Opponents: Seven opponents have hit two career slams each against the O's. Nobody has hit more . . . Three have hit two at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Was.), Moose Skowron (N.Y.), Mike Epstein (Was.).

There have been 10 alien pitchers to throw up two grand slams each to Baltimore batters, including three still active: Aurelio Lopez (Det.) to John Lowenstein ('83) and Mike Young ('84), both at Detroit; Don Aase (Cal.) to Lee May ('79) and Doug DeCinces ('81), both at Baltimore; Lamarr Hoyt (Chi.) to Terry Crowley ('80) and DeCinces ('81), both at Baltimore.

Orioles "Gophers:" Among Orioles pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore while Dave McNally was victimized 4 times. One the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings. Among current O's, Don Aase, Ken Dixon, Mike Flanagan and Scott McGregor are tied for having given up the most—2.

OPENING DAY

The Orioles are 20-13 on opening day, but have lost 3 of their last 4 beginning with a 7-2 loss at home to Kansas City in '83. Prior to that, the O's had won 11 of 13 openers beginning in '70, including 7 straight ('70–'76).

For the past 6 years the Orioles have opened the season at home and although they have gone 3-3 in those games, they are 21-12 overall in home openers. Opening day in Baltimore has drawn over 50,000 in seven of the last 8 seasons.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Although the Orioles have had only one in the past 6 years, Baltimore pitchers have produced 23 20-game seasons in the past 19 years (starting '68), far and away the most in the majors over that period.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/30) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67) was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

NO-HITTERS BY OPPONENTS

Two no-hitters have been pitched against the Orioles in the 33 years they have been back in the A.L., both by California Angels pitchers: Bo Belinsky was the first, on May 5, '62, at Dodger Stadium, winning 2-0 over his former minor league roommate Steve Barber. . . . On June 1, 1975, Nolan Ryan no-hit the O's at Anaheim Stadium, defeating Ross Grimsley, 1-0.

The list above contains only those who appeared for Orioles in at least one regular season game. Larry Doby for example, was on roster during winter of '57-'58 but was traded before season started. Johnny Pesky, Bruce Swango and others were with club during a season but did not appear in any games.

DIAMOND VISION VIDEO BOARD

Memorial Stadium's "Diamond Vision" Scoreboard by Mitsubishi stands 25'7" by 33'3". Included among its many capabilities are instant replays, video features, closeups, full color message board displays and animations. It is operated by a staff of 8 under the direction of Game Communications Director Charles Steinberg, DDS.

There are now 16 four color video replay boards in major league ball parks ("Diamond Vision" unless otherwise indicated): Atlanta, Chicago White Sox, Cincinnati (Sony), Houston, Los Angeles, New York Mets, New York Yankees, Oakland, Philadelphia (Panasonic), Pittsburgh, San Diego, San Francisco (Sony), Seattle, St. Louis (Stewart-Warner) & Texas.

The "black & white" board in left center field has been in use since the middle of the 1970 season.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

This award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland to the most valuable Oriole player by vote of sportswriters and broadcasters who cover the team on a regular basis.

The 1986 winner was reliever Don Aase. It was the first time a pitcher has won the award since Mike Cuellar was a co-winner in 1974. Oriole first baseman Eddie Murray had been selected "MVO" in each of the 5 previous years ('81-'85), including a tie with Cal Ripken in '83.

Aase received 16 of a possible 20 first place votes while amassing 89 points in the 5-3-1 scoring system. Cal Ripken was 2nd in the voting with 4 first place votes and 68 total points. Murray finished 3rd with 12 points, Fred Lynn 4th with 7 points and Larry Sheets 5th with 2.

Notes: For the 2nd straight year and the 4th in the last 7, the Orioles failed to win a Gold Glove in '86.

Despite the recent drought, the Orioles have won a total of 48 Gold Gloves since the inception of the award in '57, most in the majors. St. Louis, which had 2 winners last season, is 2nd with 44. Others among the leaders are Cincinnati-37, New York Yankees-36, Pittsburgh-33, Philadelphia-32 and Boston-31.

Eddie Murray is the only Oriole to win a Gold Glove since '79 having won 3 consecutive, '82-'84. Only George Scott and Vic Powers (7 each) have won the award more times among American League first basemen. The only Baltimore first baseman to win a Gold Glove, Eddie is the seventh Oriole to win at least three.

Other Orioles who have been multiple winners are: Brooks Robinson-16 (tied with Jim Kaat for the most ever by one player); Paul Blair and Mark Belanger-8 each; Jim Palmer and Bobby Grich-4 each; Dave Johnson-3; and Luis Aparicio-2.

The Gold Glove Awards are presented by The Sporting News in cooperation with Rawlings Sporting Goods Companys to those players considered to be the best at their positions by vote of league managers and coaches. Selection is based not only on consistency (i.e. fielding percentage) but also range, overall ability and effectiveness.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have been shutout in that department the last seven years.

The Birds' last two triple plays ('78 & '79) were of the "around the horn" variety involving Doug DeCinces, Rich Dauer, and Eddie Murray. Brooks Robinson started the other three Orioles' "around the horn" triple plays.

Jun. 10, '79—at Bal.—Buddy Bell "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray)
Sep. 9, '78—at Tor.—Rick Cerone "gitp" . . .5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray)
Jun. 3, '77—at K.C.—John Wathan hit a sac fly to Pat Kelly in right. Fred Patek was caught off 1st and was out, Kelly to Mark Belanger to Billy Smith back to Belanger. Belanger then noticed Dave Nelson standing off 3rd base. He ran at him and tagged him out, completing the game-ending triple play and giving the O's a 7-6 win—9-6-4-6-6.
Sep. 29, '73—at Det.—Frank Howard "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, T. Crowley).
Jul. 7, '73—vs. Oak. at Bal.—Gene Tenace "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, E. Cabell).
Aug. 6, '69—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Eliseo Rodriguez "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, D. Johnson, B. Powell).
Apr. 9, '59—at Was.—Ed Fitzgerald line drive . . . 3-6-3 (Boyd, Carrasquel, Boyd).
Aug. 3, '55—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Art Ceccarelli "gitp" then runner was thrown out at home . . . 3-6-2 (G. Triandos, W. Miranda, H. Smith).

The Orioles have hit into 13 triple plays in 33 seasons, the last victim being Gary Roenicke against Oakland at Baltimore on May 7, '79. He grounded to third baseman Wayne Gross, who started an "around the horn" 5-4-3 triple play, the first executed against the Orioles since 1972. On four of the 13 occasions that Birds' opponents have completed triple plays, Brooks Robinson has been the batter. Brooks grounded into one, lined into another, and two were "gidp's", with a runner then being thrown out between third and home.

LAST YEAR

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

The Orioles have hit 17 inside-the-park home runs in their 33-year history, but none since Aug. 21, '76 when Al Bumbry hit one off Jesse Jefferson at Chicago. O's opponents have hit 13, including five since Bumbry's. Minnesota's Ron Washington hit the only one against the O's in '86 connecting off Mike Boddicker at the HHH on July 3.

There have been 11 inside-the-park home runs hit at Memorial Stadium (9 by the Orioles, 2 by opponents). The last one hit at Baltimore came April 19, '74 when Bumbry hit one off N.Y.'s Steve Kline. Bumbry's 2 inside-the-park blasts rank him 2nd on the O's all-time list behind Paul Blair (3, two at home).

EASY MAGIC NUMBER FORMULAS

This one suggested by veteran, Baltimore EVENING SUN baseball writer, Jim Henneman: Add trailing clubs' losses to leading team's wins . . . Subtract the sum from 162, then add one . . . That is your magic number.

This one from a Baltimore baseball fan, Michael McCoy: Subtract the leader's wins and the trailing team's losses from 163, i.e. Magic Number = 163 - LW - TL.

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

Wes Stock is the only pitcher to have won both ends of a doubleheader in an Orioles uniform. He did it on May 26, '63 in Cleveland.

ORIOLES 1986 SEASON SUMMARY

Final Overall Record: 73-89 (.451)
Seventh in A.L. Eastern Division 22½ games behind first place Boston
Home: 37-42 Road: 36-47 Vs. East: 28-50 Vs. West: 45-39

REVIEW OF THE ORIOLES '86 SEASON

A precipitous slump that spanned the last 2 months of the 1986 season, during which the O's went 14-42 (.250), brought an abrupt end to 2 long and distinguished steaks that had provided Orioles fans with bragging rights for many years.

A string of 18 consecutive winning seasons, 2nd longest in baseball history, suddenly ended as did the distinction of never having finished in last place. Now only the K.C. Royals among the 26 major league clubs can make that claim.

For the Orioles, summer peaked on Tuesday, August 5 when, after a victory over the Texas Rangers in Baltimore, the 2nd place Birds pulled to within 2½ games of division leading Boston. It was the closest any club would come after June 1 to the Red Sox (who took over the A.L. lead permanently on May 14).

At that point the O's were 59-47, had gone 18-9 in the last month (starting July 5), and were 13-6 after the All-Star break. Things were looking good, but not for long.

Winter began to set in the following night (August 6). It was a memorable game that produced 3 grand slam home runs for the first time in major league history (2 by the O's and one by the Rangers—see "Grand Slams" below), including 2 in the same inning (Larry Sheets and Jim Dwyer). And, it was a game in which the O's, trailing 6-0, scored 9 times in the 4th inning and went on to take an 11-6 lead after 6 innings. From that point on the season went straight downhill.

The Birds lost that game, 13-11, and went on to drop 42 of their last 56 games (3 out of every 4). During this prolonged slump (2nd in severity only to a 9-42 stretch late in '54, the O's 1st year in Baltimore) the O's dropped from 2nd to 7th place and from 2½ to 22½ games back of the Bosox. That was the farthest the O's have been out of first place in exactly 30 years ('56).

The monumental skid reached its nadir over a two-day period in late August (8/28–29) at Oakland where the O's played back-to-back make-up doubleheaders (created by 2 earlier rain outs in Baltimore) and dropped all 4 games.

Ironically, in the first of those twin bills, the club's landslide '86 mvp, Don Aase, who demolished the old club record with 34 saves and who had a hand in 55% of the O's victories, was the losing pitcher in "sudden death" in both games. He became the first pitcher in the club's history to lose twice in one day. For the Orioles and their fans, those were the 2 longest days in the 2 longest months in memory.

NOTES: The O's suffered their earliest official elimination from the pennant race (Sep. 16) since 1967 and settled into last place for good on Sep. 25.

Their 73-89 (.451) record was the club's 4th worst of all-time (by pct.) exceeded only by the first 3 teams to represent Balmer in the American League's modern era: '54 (54-100, .351); '55 (57-97, .370) and '56 (69–85, .448), their first 3 years in Balmer.

Early on there were some memorable efforts, particularly during a month-long stretch (May 10 thru June 8) when the O's jumped from 12-14 to 13 over .500 (a season high) at 33-20. That 21-6 spurt vaulted the Birds from 6th to 2nd place, though they gained only 2½ games on the Red Sox during that entire period.

ARTIFICIAL TURF: In '86, the Orioles were 14-11 (.560) on artificial turf (Kansas City, 3-3; Minnesota, 3-3; Seattle, 3-3; Toronto, 5-2) tied for 2nd in the league with Oakland behind leader New York (19-7, .731).

Baltimore's lifetime record on carpet is 149-140 (.516). The O's are 142-136 (.511) in A.L. stadiums (Chicago, 27-24 from '68 thru '75; Kansas City, 32-47; Minnesota, 15-15; Seattle, 34-21; Toronto, 34-29) and 7-4 in 4 world series ('70 Cincinnati, 2-0; '71 Pittsburgh, 0-3; '79 Pittsburgh, 2-1; '83 Philadelphia, 3-0).

BATTING: The Orioles batted .258 (1425/5524), 8th in the A.L. On Aug. 7, the O's were batting .267, 5th in the league, and had averaged 4.8 runs per game thru 108 games, but in their final 54 games the O's batted only .240 and scored an average of only 3.6 runs per game.

For the year, the O's scored 3 runs or less 74 times (12-62), 2 runs or less 48 times (6-42) and one run or less 29 times (2-27) . . . The O's scored 3 runs or less in 33 of their final 54 games. The O's scored nearly 20% of their runs in only 11 games (136 of 708 runs).

The O's were 11th in runs scored (708). They were shut out 13 times, tying Seattle and Chicago for the A.L. lead. It was the most the O's had been shut out since '76 (16) and more than doubled the '85 total (7).

The O's were 6th in the A.L. in home runs (169), 45 less than they hit in '85. They did, however, tie for the major league lead in grand slams (see "Grand Slams") . . The O's led the majors with 159 gidp's and set a club record, breaking the old mark of 158 in '80.

Baltimore's 205 extra base hits, their fewest since '77, were 12th in the league. They finished 12th in doubles and WERE LAST IN THE LEAGUE IN TRIPLES SETTING A MAJOR LEAGUE RECORD FOR FEWEST TRIPLES IN A SEASON (13). The old record was 17 held by 6 other clubs. There were 13 triples hit at Memorial Stadium in '86, and only 2 were hit by the Orioles (Alan Wiggins vs. Minn on May 14 and Eddie Murray on the last day of the season, Oct. 5 vs. Det.)

With Runners in Scoring Position: The Orioles batted .248 (325/1309) with runners in scoring position, exactly 40 points lower than their average in '85. The Orioles' leading hitters with runners in scoring position were: Eddie Murray, .366 (45/123); Juan Beniquez, .315 (23/73); Larry Sheets, .307 (23/75); Juan Bonilla, .286 (18/63); Fred Lynn, .267 (23/86); Cal Ripken, .260 (38/145).

Tie and Lead Runs Produced: Ripken, 33; Lynn, 24; Sheets, 20; Murray, 18; Traber 14; Dwyer, 13; Beniquez, 11; Shelby, 11; Lacy, 10; Young, 10; Dempsey, 9; Bonilla, 7; Rayford, 6; Stefero, 2; Gerhart, 2; Jones, 2; Gutierrez, 1.

CLOSE GAMES: The O's were 20-17 (.541) in 1-run games, 3rd in the A.L. behind Boston (24-10, .706) and California (28-16, .636). It was the 23rd time in 33 Baltimore seasons that the O's have had a winning record in such games, but their first since '83.

Baltimore was 14-19 in 2-run games, 11th in the A.L. The O's were 34-36 (.486) in 1- and 2-run games combined, 8th in the A.L.

DAY/NIGHT: The O's had the A.L.'s 4th best record in day games (26-23, .531) despite losing 10 of their last 14. They had the A.L.'s worst record in night games (47-66, .416), their first losing record at night since '62. It was their 3rd worst record ever in night games.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: First (0); 2nd (25); 3rd (53); 4th (26); 5th (33); 6th (27); 7th (14).

DESIGNATED HITTERS: Orioles' designated hitters topped the league with a .298 average (184/617), highest by an Oriole club since the DH rule was instituted in '73. The O's were 20 points higher than the next closest team (NY, .278) and 42 points higher than the league average for '86 (.256). Oriole DH's had batted only .219 (133/607) in '84 and .232 (142/613) in '85.

O's DH's also led the league in hits (184), total bases (307), gidp's (24) and slugging (.498). They were 5th in hrs (29), 2nd in extra base hits (62), tied for 5th in rbi (97) and struck out 92 times, only K.C. struck out less.

Larry Sheets was the O's most active DH appearing in 58 games and he was tied for 2nd in the A.L. in batting (.302, 62/205, HR-10, RBI-41) among DH's who appeared in 50 or more games. Four other Orioles also batted over .300 as a DH: Eddie Murray, .356 (21/59, HR-1, RBI-4) Jim Dwyer, .343 (24/70, HR-6, RBI-19); Juan Beniquez, .333 (13/39, HR-3, RBI-4); and Jim Traber, .316 (24/76, HR-5, RBI-12).

DOUBLEHEADERS: The O's participated in only 3 doubleheaders, establishing a club record for fewest in a season. For comparison's sake: in '55 the O's played a club record 32 doubleheaders. For the 2nd straight year the O's failed to win a doubleheader, the only 2 seasons in the club's history that has occurred. The Birds lost 2 twin bills to Oakland on successive days and split one at Toronto giving them a 1-5 record in doubleheader games. Only Minnesota (0-4) had a worse record in the A.L. The O's have not won a doubleheader since Sep. 24, '84 when they took 2 from the Yankees at home. The O's have played 8 twinbills since and are 0-4-4.

FIELDING: The Orioles finished the season tied for 10th in the A.L. in fielding with a .978 pct. (TC-6096, E-135). Both the fielding pct. and the 135 errors were the worst since '59.

The '86 season marked the 2nd straight year that the O's defense has strayed from the norm. In '85, the O's finished tied for 8th in fielding (.979, TC-6127, E-129). In the 24 seasons prior to '85, the O's had finished first or 2nd in the league 19 times, 3rd twice, 4th once and 5th twice.

The O's were tied for 3rd in the league in double plays and Oriole catchers committed only 7 passed balls, fewest in the league.

Cal Ripken led all major league shortstops in assists (482) and was 2nd in the A.L. in fielding pct. (.982, TC-735, E-13) behind Toronto's Tony Fernandez (.983, TC-752, E-13). Ripken was also 2nd in double plays with 105 behind Boston's Spike Owen (133).

Rick Dempsey was charged with only 2 passed balls, fewest in the league among catchers who caught at least 50 games. Mike Boddicker was 4th in the A.L. in assists (36) and 2nd in total chances (67) behind Cleveland's Tom Candiotti (71). Boddicker was tied for 3rd in putouts (28).

The O's used 10 different 3rd basemen and they combined to make 40 errors. Only Milwaukee's 3rd basemen made more in the A.L. (42). Floyd Rayford set a club record for most errors in a game when he made 4 at Cleveland on Apr. 21. He also tied an A.L. record for most errors in a game by a 3rd baseman. The O's had 5 different 2nd basemen play in at least 10 games.

HOME AND AWAY: The O's lost their last 7 home games and 20 of their last 28 to finish with a 37-42 record at Memorial Stadium, their first losing home record since '72 and only the fifth in club history. Twice the O's lost 7 straight home games (June 16–29 and Sept. 21 thru the end of the season). It was the first time since '72 the O's have lost as many consecutive games at home.

The O's were the only A.L. club with a losing mark at home and one of only three major league clubs (Pittsburgh, 31-50, and Montreal, 36-44). The O's were victims of 5 series sweeps at home during the year. They were 36-47 in away games, the 2nd straight year they have been below .500 on the road, but only the 3rd time in the last 19 seasons (starting '68).

GRAND SLAMS: The O's hit 7 grand slams, tying for the major league lead with Boston and California. It marked the 6th straight season the O's have led or tied for the major league lead in grand slams ('81 thru '86). The Orioles have hit 43 grand slams during that span, 13 more than the closest team (California, 30).

The Orioles and Texas Rangers set a major league record on Aug. 6 when the two teams combined to hit three grand slams in Texas' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit the grand slams for the O's, both in the 4th inning. It marked only the 5th time in major league history that one club has hit 2 grand slams in a single inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grand slams in one game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam.

Eddie Murray tied for the A.L. lead with 2 grand slams giving him 14 lifetime, tied for 8th on the all-time list with Gil Hodges and 2nd among active players behind Dave Kingman (16).

INJURIES: The Orioles went on the disabled list 12 times in '86, believed to be a club record . . . By June 2, six players had already done time on the DL. Tippy Martinez was assigned to the list 3 different times and Eddie Murray was DL'd for the first time ever in his big league career. Due to injuries to Murray and Fred Lynn, the Murray-Lynn-Cal Ripken trio were in the starting lineup together only 79 times.

By position, the list claimed 5 pitchers, a total of 7 times (Mike Boddicker, Storm Davis, Mike Flanagan, Dennis Martinez and Tippy Martinez—3), 3 infielders (Jackie Gutierrez, Eddie Murray and Floyd Rayford) and one outfielder (Fred Lynn).

Boddicker—torn ligament middle finger of right hand while pitching April 19 . . . Returned May 10, but had trouble with the finger the rest of the year. Despite the pain, he started 33 games.

Davis—DL'd from July 4–22 with strained muscles in right hip, then went out for the year on Sep. 3 when he tore ligaments in right ankle covering 1st base.

Flanagan—tendinitis left elbow, DL'd May 31 to June 19.

Gutierrez—was stricken with Chicken Pox and was out of action from May 14 to June 20.

Lynn—missed a total of 49 games because of an assortment of injuries that included a strained right wrist (June 3), Laryngitis (June 13), severely sprained right ankle for which he was DL'd in June, and a strained right shoulder which bothered him over the last 7 weeks of the season.

D. Martinez—went on the DL with sore right shoulder May 3 and did not pitch again for the O's. He was traded to Montreal on June 16 for a "ptbnl".

T. Martinez—an inner ear infection that left him dizzy and disoriented put him on the list from Apr. 25 to May 28 . . . Less than a month later he returned to the DL with a sore left shoulder (June), was activated July 4, but went back on 13 days later with recurrence of the shoulder problem and was laid up for the rest of the season.

Murray—pulled his left hamstring in Minnesota July 3, aggravated it on July 6 and went on the list July 17 . . . He missed a total of 25 games before being re-activated Aug. 7. Fortunately for the O's, they were 16-9 in those 25 games.

Rayford—chipped a bone in his left thumb in spring training on March 28 and subsequently went on the DL from Apr. 5–21.

Sheets—a pulled right rib cage muscle disabled him from June 30–July 17.

Others who missed some work because of injury included Don Aase (strained back Aug. 6—missed a week); Lee Lacy (started only 6 of the O's last 32 games because of a rib cage muscle pull); Nate Snell (sat out 5 days after being hit by line drive June 5); and Rick Dempsey (missed last 3 games after undergoing surgery Oct. 2 for removal of bone chips from right elbow).

LATE INNING WINS: The O's were 17-14 in games decided in a club's last at bat. They came from behind to win 36 times (12 fewer than '85) and were 23-24 in games decided in the 7th inning or later. Baltimore lost 11 games after they had been leading in the 7th inning or later. They had 8 such losses after Aug. 5.

The O's won only 4 games in "sudden death" at Memorial Stadium, tied with '67 as their 2nd lowest total (they had only 3 in '84). The O's were beaten in "sudden death" 6 times on the road including 3 times by Texas and twice in one day at Oakland, Aug. 28 when Don Aase became the first Oriole to ever lose both ends of a doubleheader. He was beaten, 5-4, on a 2-out, 2-run homer by Dave Kingman in the 9th inning of the first game and 8-7 on a 2-out, 2 run triple by Carney Lansford in the 9th inning of the 2nd game.

The O's finished 9th in the A.L. in extra inning games (5-6, .455). It was their 3rd consecutive season with a losing record in extra inning games, but only their 7th in the last 23 seasons.

LINEUPS: The Orioles used 141 different lineups during the season and employed 9 different leadoff hitters. John Shelby was the most traveled Oriole in the lineup, batting in 7 different spots (every spot but 4th and 5th).

MANAGERIAL CHANGE: On Sep. 9, it was announced by the Orioles that Earl Weaver would not return as manager of the Orioles in '87. Weaver remained with the O's through the rest of the season and on the day after the regular season, Cal Ripken, Sr. was named the Orioles skipper for '87.

MONTH-BY-MONTH: April: 10-10 (5-4 at home); May: 18-8 (10-3 at home); June: 11-17 (4-11 at home); July 16-11 (9-4 at home); Aug.: 10-19 (5-8 at home); Sep.: 8-20 (4-9 at home); Oct.: 0-4 (0-3 at home).

PINCH-HITTING: Oriole pinch hitters were 7th in the A.L. in batting at .253, (43/170), an increase of 67 points over the previous year when they batted only .186. The league average for pinch hitters was .249. Oriole pinch hitters were the 2nd busiest in the league with 200 plate appearances behind Minnesota's 214. Oriole PH's had led the league in that department the last 2 seasons. The O's led the league in doubles (11), were 2nd in rbi (34) and 3rd in hrs (5) and walks (23).

Jim Dwyer hit 3 pinch hrs, all between May 12 and June 19, to tie the club record for most in a season (held by 3 others). Dwyer's 3 pinch hrs gave him 7 lifetime as an Oriole tying Benny Ayala for the all-time Oriole record. His nine pinch hits moved him into 2nd place on the O's all-time pinch hit list with 36 trailing only Terry Crowley (79).

Dwyer was tied for the league lead in pinch hrs with Detroit's Larry Herndon, 1st in doubles (4), walks (7) and total bases (22) and 2nd to Herndon in rbi (12-11). Dwyer finished the season on a 1/22 slump as a pinch hitter.

With a .474 mark (9/19), Juan Beniquez had the A.L.'s 2nd highest average among pinch hitters with a minimum of 20 plate appearances. Only Ron Hassey, who hit .566 (10/18) with NY and Chi., had a higher average. Beniquez's average was the 2nd highest in Oriole history among pinch hitters with a minimum of 20 plate appearances in a season (Gene Woodling hit .526, 10/18 in '59). Beniquez had 5 straight pinch hits at one point, one shy of the club record set by Bob (Rocky) Johnson in '64.

A total of 19 players were used as pinch hitters throughout the year.

PITCHING: For the 2nd straight year, Oriole pitching numbers were unusually high. The O's 4.30 staff era, 10th in the A.L. was the 2nd highest in the club history surpassed only by the 4.38 in '85. It was only the 4th season ever the O's finished with an era above 4.00.

The 10th place finish was the lowest the O's have ever placed in era in the A.L. Oriole hurlers also allowed 1,451 hits and 760 runs, both 2nd in club history behind the '85 staff (H-1480, R-764). Opponents hit 177 hrs, most ever, breaking the old mark of 160 set in '85.

In addition, the O's 17 complete games were their fewest ever (the previous low was 23 in '66). Only three A.L. clubs had less (Toronto 16, Texas 15, New York 13).

The O's finished with 6 shutouts (only 2 complete game shutouts, both by Scott McGregor), tying the '85 and '54 clubs. Only Seattle, with 5, had less, while Boston and Minnesota also finished with 6. On a more positive note, Oriole pitchers fanned 954, 4th highest total in the club's history and most since '68.

Oriole starters were 54-69 with a 4.42 era (IP-992.2, ER-487) while the bullpen was 19-20 with 39 saves in 52 opportunities and a 4.05 era (IP-444, ER-200). The total of 39 saves was the 2nd highest in Oriole history (behind 41 in '80). After Aug. 5, while the Orioles went 14-42, the O's era was 5.05 (IP-493.1, ER-277) raising the overall mark from 3.91 to its season ending 4.30. During that 56-game collapse, Oriole righthanders (Mike Boddicker, Storm Davis, Ken Dixon and John Habyan) were 3-19 in their last 33 starts with a combined 5.86 era (IP-173.2, ER-113).

Overall, O's starters failed to complete 5 innings on 40 occasions (they were 6-34) and did not get thru 4 innings in 27 starts (they were 4-23). The O's gave up 102 1st inning runs, more than they yielded in any other inning and scored only 65. Mike Boddicker led the staff giving up 28 first inning runs, followed by Scott McGregor (27), Ken Dixon (18), Mike Flanagan (13), Storm Davis (10), John Habyan (4), Rich Bordi & Eric Bell (1). O's trailed after the first inning 41 times and were 11-30 in those games. Opponents scored first in 103 of 162 games.

STREAKS: The Orioles longest win streak was 6 (May 10–15) and their longest losing streak was 7 (Aug. 24–29). It was their longest losing streak since they dropped 8 in a row in '83.

ORIOLES VS. OPPONENTS

VS. BOSTON ('86: 4-9, Lifetime: 276-290): The O's lost the season series for the 3rd straight year and for the 4th time in the last 5 years . . . The Red Sox are the only A.L. team with a lifetime winning record vs. Baltimore, though the Indians are close at 283-284.

Over the past 3 seasons the Red Sox have been particularly effective at Memorial Stadium where they are 16-4, including 14-2 starting Sep. 21, '84. The O's have made out a little better in the recent past at Fenway Park where they are 16-10 over the past 4 seasons . . . The O's last 2 wins vs. the Carmines in Baltimore were both in the Birds' final game at home against the Sox, in '85 and '86.

There were 5 former Red Sox with the Orioles in '86: Don Aase, Juan Beniquez, Jim Dwyer, Jackie Gutierrez and Fred Lynn. The Gutierrez-Sammy Stewart trade of Dec. 17, '85 was the first between the two clubs in 25 years since outfielders Willie Tasby and Gene Stephens swapped uniforms in 1960.

O's reliever Tony Arnold who came up in the 2nd half of the season was a teammate of both Spike Owen and Calvin Schiraldi at the University of Texas (Roger Clemens came the semester after Tony signed with O's in June '81). The lights went out for 22 minutes during the game of Sep. 11 at Baltimore, but it wasn't un-precedented . . . In one Yankee series during a particularly humid stretch in '78, there were 4 power failures.

Cy Young and MVP awards winner Clemens fell one win short of tying the A.L. standard of 16 straight wins at the start of the season (15), held jointly by the O's Dave McNally ('69) and Cleveland's Johnny Allen ('37) . . . See more on Clemens below under "Red Sox Pitching".

RED SOX BATTING: Wade Boggs, the A.L. batting champ at .357 hit .442 (43-19) vs. the O's and now has a .341 career mark against Baltimore (226-77), still shy of his lifetime average in the A.L. (.352, 2778-978).

The most productive Red Sox hitter over the past 2 years against the O's has been Dwight Evans whose 18 rbi and 5 homers vs. Baltimore this year were 2nd among all opponents to the Tigers' Kirk Gibson (19 rbi, 6 hr). He batted .364 (44-16), and in '85 & '86 combined drove in 31 runs in 26 games, batted .362 (94-34) and hit 8 home runs.

Bill Buckner's 3-year average vs. the O's is .310 (158-49), but he's been 2 different hitters in that time against the Birds. At Baltimore, Buckner has batted .432 (88-38), but at Fenway he has hit only .157 (70-11).

Jim Rice had a .396 average vs. the O's in '86 (53-21) with 11 rbi and 2 homers in 13 games . . . Lifetime, Rice has hit .335 (585-196) vs. Baltimore pitching with 36 home runs and 116 rbi in 149 games.

Marty Barrett has a .326 (144-47) career average vs. the O's . . . Tony Armas is batting nearly 100 points lower (.228, 351-80) than Barrett but over the last 7 years has driven in 64 runs and hit 25 homers against the Birds in 73 games.

Dave Henderson, who hit .387 (31-12) vs. the O's while splitting the season between Seattle and Boston, has a lifetime average of .358 (151-54) at the Orioles expense, 2nd only to Don Slaught's .362 (130-47), among active batters with 100 or more at bats against the O's.In that category, 4 Red Sox (Henderson-1, Boggs-6, Rice-7 and Barrett-9) rank in the top 10.

RED SOX PITCHING: Clemens was 3-0 in 4 starts (no complete games) gave up 21 hits and 9 earned runs, walked 9 and fanned 23 in 23.2 innings . . . The only two home runs he yielded to the O's were by Eddie Murray in the same game (June 27 at Baltimore). All of his wins were at the expense of Ken Dixon.

In his final outing against the O's on Oct. 1 designed as a tuneup for post-season, Clemens left the game in the 2nd inning after a shot off the bat of John Stefero hit him above the right elbow. He didn't pitch again until game 1 of the ALCS on Oct. 7.

Al Nipper was 2-0 in 2 starts despite a 5.11 era (ip-12.1, er-7), while Bob Stanley was 0-1 but saved 3 games despite an 8.59 era vs. the O's (7 er in 7.1 inn) and the fact that the O's batted .459 against him (37-17) . . . Schiraldi, on the other hand, was 1-0 with a save in 4 appearances, didn't allow an earned run in 8 innings and checked O's batters on a .107 average (28-3).

"Oil Can" Boyd was 1-0 in 2 starts, that win at Baltimore where he is 4-1 lifetime with a 2.45 era (ip-36.2, h-30, er-10) . . . He has pitched 2 of his 6 major league shutouts at Memorial Stadium.

ORIOLES BATTING: The O's hit .313 (224-70) at Fenway where they were 3-3, but only .244 (246-60) at home where they were 1-6 . . . The O's most prolific hitter in Boston was John Shelby at .421 (19-8). In his last 14 games at Fenway Park John has gone 22-for-58 (.379) and has a lifetime .322 average there (90-29, G-24, RBI-15).

Eddie Murray batted .417 (48-20) against the A.L. champions and had a .525 on-base percentage (59-31) thanks to 11 walks. He's now hitting .292 (474-143) lifetime vs. Boston.

The O's top career hitters vs. the Red Sox are Floyd Rayford (.354, 79-28), Lee Lacy (.309, 68-21), Murray, and Mike Young (.292, 137-40) whose 27 rbi against the Carmines are a career high . . . Young hit .350 against them in '86 (40-14).

Three former Birds (Beniquez, Juan Bonilla and Stefero) combined to bat .388 off Boston pitching (67-26) in '86.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Nobody had more than one win vs. the Sox and the aforementioned Dixon (0-3) was the only multiple loser. He worked in 5 games, 4 of them starts.

Mike Boddicker has a rather remarkable distinction vs. Boston. He has pitched all of the Orioles' last 5 complete games in the rivalry, starting Sep. 5, '83 . . . Mike is 4-5 lifetime and has never beaten the Bosox in Baltimore (0-4). He's 4-1 at Fenway.

Mike Flanagan's no decision start vs. the Sox on Sep. 8 was his first outing against them in nearly 2 years (Sep. 20, '84) . . . He is 9-9 lifetime and 3-1 in his last 5 starts.

Last year the White Sox beat Boston 5 times and Dave Schmidt saved 3 of them. He held the Red Sox scoreless in the 3 appearances (5.2 innings) . . . Lifetime he has yielded only 2 earned runs in 26 innings vs. Boston for a career low 0.69 era.

VS. CALIFORNIA ('86: 6-6, Lifetime: 199-155) . . . The O's haven't lost a season series to the Angels since 1978 . . . Since then they've won 6, tied 2 and compiled a 60-36 (.625) overall record (not incl. 3-1 in '79 ALCS).

Lifetime the O's hold a winning regular season record both at home (108-69) and in California (91-89), including 70-65 in Anaheim. As a matter of fact, the O's are over .500 lifetime in all 3 A.L. west coast cities.

The Angels out-hit the O's .270 to .229 in the season series, but held only a 50-46 edge in runs scored as the 2 clubs battled to a 6-6 standoff.

ANGELS BATTING: The best hitting regular for the Angels in '86 vs. Baltimore was the now departed Reggie Jackson (.360, 25-9) though he didn't hit a home run off O's pitching for the 3rd straight year. Rookie Wally Joyner made his presense felt with a .340 mark (47-16).

Gary Pettis who entered the season with a .164 lifetime mark (55-9) batted .324 (37-12) against the O's which boosted his career figure to a more presentable .228 (92-21).

ANGELS PITCHING: Kirk McCaskill (4-0), who led all opponents in wins, innings (34), walks (15) and strikeouts (24), and Mike Witt (1-2) accounted for 7 of the 12 Angels decisions in the season series.

McCaskill is one of 3 pitchers to have beaten the O's 4 times since the A.L. adopted balanced scheduling in '79, along with John Butcher (Twins '84) and Joe Cowley (Yankees '85). Pat Dobson holds the post-expansion record with 5 wins vs. Balmer for Cleveland in '76.

McCaskill compiled a 2.38 era in his 4 starts which included 2 complete games (ip-34, er-9, bb-15, so-24) and held the O's to a .164 (116-19) club average.

Witt fanned 23 in 22.2 innings, but his era was 4.76 (h-19, er-12) and he threw 6 "gopher" balls. Cal Ripken beat him on May 21, 2-1, with a 2-run homer in the 7th, and John Shelby went 4-for-11 off Witt with 2 homers and 2 doubles on the year.

ORIOLES BATTING: Eddie Murray continued to be the O's most dominant force against the Angels. Eddie who has played in all 121 Orioles-Angels games (including '83 ALCS) since he joined the club at the start of '77, batted .378 (37-14) vs. California in '86 and had a .468 on-base pct. (47-22).

Over the last 3 years Murray's cumulative figures have been better than that. In that span he has a .371 average (124-46) and a .487 (158-77) on-base ratio, plus 10 homers and 41 rbi in 36 encounters. Lifetime, he's batting .332 (431-143) with 25 homers and a career high (vs. one opponent) 101 rbi, incl. 5 in ALCS, in those 121 games.

Fred Lynn batted .357 (42-15) against his old teammates and, though he batted only .220 (41-9), Cal Ripken led the Birds with 4 home runs against California.

The O's top career hitter vs. the Angels is John Shelby (.340, 100-34), followed by Murray, and Ripken (.314, 242-76).

ORIOLES PITCHING: Scott McGregor (2-1 in '86) is officially 19-7 lifetime (regular season) against California, a career high for wins against one opponent. But, if you include the '79 ALCS which he clinched for the O's with a game #4 shutout, he has won 20 of his last 25 decisions vs. the Angels.

In that stretch of 25 verdicts, he has gone 12-4 at Anaheim, and at one point reeled off 12 straight victories (July 8, '79 'til losing to Steve Renko on July 19, '82) . . . His lifetime era against the Halos is 3.05 (ip-200.2, er-68).

Mike Boddicker has had a schizophrenic experience with the Angels. At home, his era vs. California is a svelte 2.31 (ip-35, er-9) and his record 3-1. But, he's had a pain in the Big A where his era is 7.06 (ip-29.1, er-23) and his record 1-3.

Mike Flanagan is 4-8 (.333) lifetime vs. Cal. with a 5.75 era. Both his won-lost pct. and his era against the Angels are his worst vs. one adversary. He's also pitched fewer innings against the Angels (101.2) than against any other opponent.

Don Aase made 6 appearances and came away with 4 saves while not allowing a run in 6 innings . . . He held the Angels to a .150 average (3-for-20) . . . Don's 2.16 era (ip-25, er-6) lifetime vs. the Angels is his best . . . In his 2 years with the O's, he has allowed only one earned run in 11 innings against the Halos.

VS. CHICAGO ('86: 9-3, Lifetime: 270-234) . . . Over the last 19 years, starting '68, the O's have gone 14-3 in season series vs. Chicago with 2 ties and hold a 137-86 (.614) edge in games.

Beginning Aug. 13, '83 and including the '83 ALCS, the O's have gone 29-13 (.690) against the Chisox.

Last year the O's held the edge in team average (.290-.253), runs scored (64-43), and era (3.43-5.40).

CHICAGO BATTING: Wayne Tolleson hit .385 (26-10) vs. the O's and whacked 2 of his season total of 3 home runs off Scott McGregor. Lifetime, Tolleson is a .316 (95-30) hitter vs. Baltimore and 3 of his 7 career homers have been hit off O's pitching.

Bobby Bonilla (.389, 18-7), Greg Walker (.345, 29-10) and Harold Baines (.326, 43-14) also prospered against the Orioles in '86.

CHICAGO PITCHING: No Chicago pitcher won more than one game, but 2 of them went 0-2—Floyd Bannister and Joe Cowley. Bannister has lost 6 straight decisions to the O's, including one in the '83 ALCS, since his last victory against them on Aug. 11, '83. Bannister is 6-8 lifetime (regular season). Cowley had a 9.90 era (ip-10, er-11) to go with his 0-2 record, following a 4-0 mark with a 2.76 era (ip-26, er-8) while with the Yankees in '85.

Reliever Bob James was 0-1 with a save in 4 appearances during which he yielded 8 earned runs in 3.1 innings (21.60 era) and was touched for a .500 average by O's hitters (18-9) . . . Richard Dotson, 1-1 in '86, has lost 6 of his last 8 decisions to Baltimore including '83 ALCS.

BALTIMORE BATTING: Eleven of the 16 Orioles who had at least 2 at bats against Chicago in '86 batted .296 or better. Tops among them were Larry Sheets (.360, 25-9), Juan Bonilla (.341, 41-14) and Fred Lynn (37-13). Rick Dempsey was the Birds' home run leader vs. the Sox with 3.

Lee Lacy has a .354 (82-29) 2-year average vs. Chicago; Cal Ripken has a career high 16 homers off Chisox pitching and is batting .315 (232-73) and both Larry Sheets (.316, 38-12) and Fred Lynn (.305, 374-114) have both hit over .300 lifetime against Chicago.

Since the start of '81, Rick Burleson has gone 11-for-75 (.147) against Chicago pitching, but is still hitting a respectable .262 (390-102) vs. the Pale Hose.

BALTIMORE PITCHING: Rich Bordi and Mike Flanagan were both 2-0 and Scott McGregor was 2-1. Flanagan is 10-7 lifetime against the White Sox, but is 5-2 in his last 8 starts against them (starting Aug. 12, '83) with a 1.38 era (ip-58.2, er-9). In that stretch which includes the '83 ALCS, he has held the Sox to a .187 average (203-38).

Ken Dixon is 3-0 lifetime with a 2.30 era (ip-27.1, er-7) . . . He was 1-0 in '86 in 2 starts . . . During the 2nd start on July 26 at Baltimore, he was involved in a 1-1 tie when he joined a tiff between rival hurler Gene Nelson and Rick Dempsey who had just been hit with a Nelson pitch. Dixon, Dempsey and Sox' 3rd base coach Doug Rader were ejected, precipitating a protest from Earl Weaver who wondered why no Sox players were on that list.

VS. CLEVELAND ('86: 4-9, Lifetime: 284-283) . . . The O's 4-9 effort in '86 vs. the Indians was their worst since the Birds' first 3 years in the league when they went '54: 3-19, '55: 3-19 and '56: 5-17. At that point the O's were 11-55 lifetime vs. the Tribe and 3-30 in Cleveland Stadium.

It took 25 years for the O's to go over .500 lifetime against Cleveland. That momentous occasion occurred when they swept a 3-game set in Baltimore on Sep. 26, 1978 and they have had a winning record against the Indians ever since. However, they enter 1987 only one game better than even.

The 52,292 that attended the O's '86 opener against the Tribe was the largest regular season crowd in Memorial Stadium history . . . .Two weeks later in Cleveland the Birds played a series which drew a 3-game total of 9,804 in the cavernous lakefront ballpark.

VS. CLEVELAND (Cont.)

The Indians 3-game sweep at Memorial Stadium Aug. 8-9-10 was exactly 3 years after their last previous sweep of the Birds on Aug. 8-9-10, '83.

Cleveland out-hit the O's (.281-.224), out-scored them (59-45) and out-pitched them (2.65-4.02).

CLEVELAND BATTING: Nine of the 13 batters who faced the O's in the season series hit over .300. The only exceptions: Chris Bando (.100, 10-1), Brett Butler (.191, 47-9), Joe Carter (.154, 52-8) and Andre Thornton (.132, 38-5).

The most productive hitter for the Tribe, Cory Snyder, played in only 7 games vs. the O's but led the club in both homers (4) and rbi (8) while batting .357 (28-10). He and fellow rookie, Andy Allanson (.371, 35-13), are among 5 Indians with .300+ career averages against Baltimore. The others: Pat Tabler (.346, 162-56), Mel Hall (.314, 70-22) and Julio Franco (.313, 201-63).

CLEVELAND PITCHING: Both Tom Candiotti and Ken Schrom were both 2-0 in 3 starts. Candiotti was particularly effective, having allowed only one run in 23.1 innings (0.39 era) and holding the O's to a .136 average (81-11). Ernie Camacho allowed neither a run nor a hit over 5 appearances spanning 4.1 innings while picking up 4 saves.

BALTIMORE BATTING: Rookie Jim Traber batted .375 (24-9) and Lee Lacy (.356, 45-16) were the top hitters for the O's in the season series, but the key to the Indians' success, perhaps, was the fact that they held both Cal Ripken (.140, 50-7) and Fred Lynn (.167, 36-6) in check.

Aside from Traber, 5 other Orioles are batting .299 or over lifetime against the Tribe: Eddie Murray (.338, 453-153), Jackie Gutierrez (.337, 86-29), Lee Lacy (.324, 71-23), Larry Sheets (.304, 46-14) and Lynn (.299, 492-147).

BALTIMORE PITCHING: Ken Dixon (2-1, 2.33 era) was the only multiple winner vs. the Tribe in '86. He had half the O's wins vs. Cleveland, and is now 3-1 lifetime with a 2.23 era (ip-44.1, er-11). Both Mike Flanagan (0-3) and Mike Boddicker (0-2) were big losers. The Indians batted .333 (66-22) off Flanagan in '86.

Boddicker is 0-3 vs. the Indians since going 3-0 against them during his 20-win season in '84 . . . The last of those victories was on Aug. 8, '84. Scott McGregor who at 10-10 is both the biggest winner and loser among current O's vs. Cleveland has dropped 7 straight to the Indians since his last win, on Aug. 4, '83 over Bud Anderson.

Don Aase has a career-high 8 wins against Cleveland but his 5.72 era vs. the Tribe is also a high vs. a single opponent (ip-66, er-42).

VS. DETROIT ('86: 1-12, Lifetime: 296-277) . . . The O's 1-12 (.077) record against the Tigers tied for the worst ever against an opponent in a season series (by percentage). The Birds were also 1-12 against the Yankees in '85, and, back in '62, experienced an horrendous 2-16 season against the Tigers.

The O's only win occurred on June 24 at Detroit, 2-1, in 10 innings with Don Aase beating Bill Campbell. Starters Scotty McGregor and Eric King combined with the aforementioned relievers to pitch 3-hitters. The decisive run crossed on a Tom O'Malley 2-out single in 10th.

The Tigers became only the 2nd team ever to go undefeated in a season at Memorial Stadium (7-0) at Memorial Stadium. The Rangers went 5-0 in Baltimore in '77.

Detroit has won 8 in a row overall over the O's (since the June 24 defeat) and has also captured 8 straight on 33rd Street since Aase decisioned Bill Scherrer on the next to last day of '85 season (Oct. 5). The Tigers have also gone 21-7 in Balmer starting Sep. 21, '82. Contrary to what Bill Brown has often said, hopefully, time will dim the glory of the Bengals deeds.

The Tigers dominated in every phase. They out-hit the O's .299 to .200, out-scored them by a whopping 86 to 35 and out-pitched them 2.52 to 6.29.

In '85 the O's hit 26 home runs off Detroit pitching. Last year they could produce only 11 total, including just one in homer-cozy Tiger Stadium. Nonetheless, in the last 2 years the O's have hit 37 and the Tigers 41 homers, a total of 78 in the last 26 games between the 2 clubs.

DETROIT BATTING: Kirk Gibson hit 6 home runs and drove in 19, both highs among Orioles' opponents (Dwight Evans had 5 and 18 for 2nd place in each category) . . . As a matter of fact, it was the most rbi by one player vs. the O's since the A.L. went to balanced scheduling in '79.

Gibson who hit .385 (52-20) was just one of 11 (out of 20 Detroit batters) to hit .300 or more vs. Balmer pitching. Lifetime Gibson is batting .302 (242-73) and Johnny Grubb .318 (170-54), but the top career hitter among current Bengals is Larry Herndon who batted .393 (28-11) vs. the O's in '86 and is hitting .333 (189-63) lifetime.

DETROIT PITCHING: The rookie Eric King had a sensational debut against the O's. In 5 appearances, including 2 starts he was 3-0 with an 0.69 era and held the O's to a .105 average (86-9). He fanned 23 in 26 innings and allowed only 2 earned runs.

Jack Morris, Frank Tanana, and Walt Terrell each went 2-0 . . . Morris evened his career record at 8-8, but is 3-6 in the last 5 years. Tanana had a 0.64 era (ip-14, er-1) in 2 starts and held the O's to a .167 average (48-8) while boosting his career record to 16-11 vs. Baltimore . . . He and the Twins' Bert Blyleven, also 16-11, are tied for most career wins agains the O's among actives.

Dan Petry who had no record in 2 starts has beaten the Birds in 7 of his last 8 decisions and is 11-7 lifetime. Willie Hernandez was touched for 4 runs in 7 innings (5.14 era) over 5 appearances, but came away with a victory and 3 saves.

ORIOLES BATTING: The Tigers held Eddie Murray (.245, 0 hr, 2 rbi) and Cal Ripken (.224, 1 hr, 2 rbi) in check and Fred Lynn appeared in only 2 games against the Tigers, none in Detroit where he has driven in 50 runs in 64 games at Tiger Stadium. Lifetime vs. the Bengals, Lynn is batting .314 (481-151). The O's top hitter in '86 was Jim Dwyer (.333, 15-5) who saw only limited duty. Jim has a .307 career mark (163-50) vs. Detroit.

Murray, for the last 3 years, has been held to a .196 average (143-28) by Detroit pitchers. Last year he failed to hit a home run at Tiger Stadium where he has been most prolific in the past (17, more than in any other road ballpark). Eddie's .241 career average against Detroit (510-123) is his lowest against one opponent, but his 27 homers are a career high (also has hit 27 vs. Brewers).

Rick Burleson has a career high 134 hits vs. Detroit, and, starting Aug. 13, '80, has batted .348 (69-24) against the Tigers.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Though the Tigers were the only club against which he did not record a save in '86, Aase was the only Oriole to get a win over Detroit (see above). Scott McGregor was 0-3 and Mike Flanagan 0-2.

McGregor has beaten Detroit only once since Sep 18, '80. That was on Oct. 4, '85 over Petry . . . He has lost 8 of his last 9 decisions to the Tigers and is 3-10 since winning 10 of his first 11 lifetime decisions against them. At 13-11 he is both the biggest winner and loser against the Tigers on the current O's staff. Flanagan is 12-10 lifetime.

Ken Dixon is only 0-1 in 2 full seasons vs. Detroit but has held Tiger batters to a .200 average (105-21).

VS. KANSAS CITY ('85: 6-6, Lifetime: 116-92) . . . The O's have won only 2 season series against the Royals in the last 11 years ('81 & '83) . . . In that period, starting '76, they've won 2, lost 4 and tied 5 times . . . During the 7 years of the 80's, the 2 clubs are 40-40.

In '86, despite the even split of 12 games, K.C. out-hit (.257-.234), out-scored (55-42) and out-pitched (3.14-4.38) the O's.

The O's last place finish in '86 leaves the Royals as the only club in the major leagues that has never wound up in the cellar.

18 YEAR RIVALRY: The Orioles still hold a 24 game edge in the rivalry that began in '69 and are 67-38 vs. the Royals in Baltimore (.638) . . . The O's edge was constructed primarily in '69 & '70 when they beat the fledgling Royals in 23 of 24 outings, including a major league record 23 consecutive times after Dick Drago beat Dick Hall on May 9, '69 in the first game ever between these 2 clubs.

Since that streak ended, the O's advantage is only 93-91.

K.C. CARPET: The O's have gone 13-11 at Royals Stadium the last 4 years, but are only 32-47 since the new ballpark opened in '73 . . . Prior to that the O's were 17-7 against the Royals in old Municipal Stadium.

ROYALS BATTING: Willie Wilson hit .346 (52-18) against the O's in '86 and over the past 2 seasons has hit .358 (106-38) against Baltimore pitching.

Lifetime, McRae has a .294 average (479-141) not including his 5-for-11 effort with the Reds in the '70 World Series . . . Sundberg has a .303 (433-131) career mark vs. Baltimore.

George Brett is batting .317 (511-162) against the O's lifetime but over the last 6 years has been held to .237 (219-52) . . . Steve Balboni led the Royals last year in both home runs (4) and rbi (8) against the O's. Juan Beniquez has a .337 (371-125) career average vs. the O's.

ROYALS PITCHING: Danny Jackson went 2-0 and yielded only one earned run in 13 innings (0.69 era) over 2 starts while O's hitters pounded him at a .163 clip (43-7). He's 4-2 lifetime . . . Charlie Leibrandt was 3-0 going into last year but dropped both decisions to the O's in '86 while the O's batted .333 (60-20) against him.

When Bret Saberhagen was 20-6 in '85, he was 0-2 vs. the O's. Last year he was 7-12 overall but went 1-0 against Baltimore . . . Lifetime, he has held O's batters to a .227 average (141-32).

Dan Quisenberry was 0-1 last year with no saves in 4 appearances. Lifetime he is 2-3 with 15 saves in 38 appearances and has a 2.35 era (ip-57.1, er-15). He's held the O's to a .233 average (210-49).

ORIOLES BATTING: Larry Sheets (.381, 21-8) and Cal Ripken (.333, 42-14) led the O's against K.C. in '86 . . . Fred Lynn hit only .200 (40-8) but 4 of his safeties were home runs.

The only current Oriole with a .300+ career average vs. K.C. is Jackie Gutierrez (.337, 69-23). Rick Burleson, beginning July 16, '80, has hit .369 (84-31) against the Royals. Has career high tying .298 average vs. the Royals (346-103) . . . Also has a .298 mark against Oakland.

He's 7-0 with 5 saves and a 2.40 era (ip-82.1, er-22). Scott McGregor (9-10) and Mike Flanagan (9-14) are the O's biggest current lifetime winners vs. the Royals and Flanagan the biggest loser.

Last year Mike Boddicker at 2-0 was the Birds only multiple winner against the Royals, while Ken Dixon (1-2) and McGregor (0-2) were both multiple losers.

VS. MILWAUKEE ('86: 6-7, Lifetime: 160-90) . . . The O's led 6-2 in the season series then lost the last 5 games, including 4 at Milwaukee Sep. 25 thru 28 . . . At Baltimore, the O's were 4-2 and have now gone 24-6 (.800) vs. the Brewers at Memorial Stadium starting Oct. 1, '82.

Lifetime at Memorial Stadium the O's are 83-40 (.673) against the Brewers, and, at County Stadium, they're 72-49 (.595).

Overall against the Brewers, the O's hold a 43-23 (.652) edge beginning Sep. 20, '81 . . . Since the start of the franchise (in Seattle '69) the O's are 160-90 (.640) against the Brewers, their 2nd best record vs. one opponent (#1 = 72-38, .655 vs. Mariners).

The only club with more errors at 3rd base last year than the Orioles (40) by 10 different players was the Brewers whose five 3rd baseman committed 42 miscues at the hot corner.

BREWERS BATTING: Jim Gantner was batting only .194 lifetime vs. the O's after his first 7 years in the A.L. (thru '84) . . . In the last 2 years, however, he has belted Baltimore pitching at a .384 clip (73-28) and has boosted his career mark to .242 (284-69). Paul Molitor batted only .138 (29-4) in '86 vs. the Birds.

BREWERS PITCHING: Teddy Higuera's first career win against the O's on Sep. 25 at County Stadium was his 20th victory of '86, making him only the 2nd Mexican ever to become a 20-game winner in the majors (3 days after Countryman Fernando Valenzuela won his 20th for the 1st time). Higuera would have been the 1st if he had beaten the O's on Sep. 19 in Baltimore, but he lost to Ken Dixon, 3-1.

Bill Wegman is only 7-12 in the major leagues, but he's 3-1 lifetime vs. the Orioles. The only multiple winner vs. the O's in '86 was rookie lefthander Dan Plesac who was 2-1.

ORIOLES BATTING: Eddie Murray is the O's top career hitter vs. Milwaukee at .327 (465-152) and his 27 home runs against the Brewers are a career high (has also hit 27 vs. Detroit). Jim Dwyer is also a .300+ lifetime hitter vs. Milwaukee (.315, 108-34).

ORIOLES PITCHING: The O's staff put together a 2.98 era against the Brewers last year. Scott McGregor, at 11-7, is the current O's biggest winner against Milwaukee while Mike Flanagan, 9-10, is the biggest loser.

McGregor who lost 5 of his first 6 lifetime decisions against Milwaukee has since won 10 of 12.

Ken Dixon was only 1-2 vs. the Brewers but had a 1.88 era (ip-24, h-19, er-5, so-19). Lifetime he's 2-2 with a 2.08 (ip-39, er-9), his best era against one opponent.

He pitched his only big league shutout vs. the Brewers when he blanked Higuera Sep. 17, '85 at Baltimore. A year and 2 days later he had another shutout going against Higuera with 2 down in the top of the 9th at Baltimore, but a solo homer by Earnie Riles spoiled it. However, Ken finished with a 3-1 complete game win.

Mike Boddicker's 6-3 career record with a 2.71 era (ip-79.2, er-24) includes a 5-1 mark at Memorial Stadium . . . Don Aase in 4 appearances against the Brewers as an Oriole has not allowed a run (6 innings) and has picked up 4 saves in the process.

VS. MINNESOTA ('86: 8-4, Lifetime: 195-155 vs. Twins only) . . . In last 10 years the O's have lost only one season series to the Twins. That was in '84. In that period, starting '77, the O's are 7-1-2 against Minny in season sets. Lifetime, they are 14-6-6 in season series since the Minnesota franchise was born ('61).

The O's were 10-8 against Ray Miller over parts of 2 seasons . . . In '88 the O's out-hit the Twins (.284 to .233), and out-scored them (64-51), though Minnesota held the edge in homers (20-18).

TWINS BATTING: Both Gary Gaetti and Kirby Puckett have had good success against the O's. Gaetti was a .349 (43-15) hitter in '86 and is batting .318 lifetime (211-67) . . . Puckett batted .320 (50-16) in the season series and has a .341 career average vs. Baltimore (123-42).

Though the O's held Kent Hrbek to a .190 average (42-8) last year, he led the Twins in both homers (4) and rbi (9) against Baltimore.

TWINS PITCHING: Bert Blyleven (2-0 in '86) and the Tigers. Frank Tanana are both 16-11 lifetime vs. the O's and thus share the distinction of being the biggest winners against the Birds among active pitchers. Tommy John (15-17), the biggest loser, is only one victory behind them.

Despite Blyleven's success vs. the O's, Fred Lynn (.389, 36-14), Cal Ripken (.379, 29-11) and Eddie Murray (.368, 38-14) have hit him very well over the years.

Neal Heaton started twice vs. the O's after joining the Twins, gave up only 2 runs in 17 innings and was 0-2. He was beaten both times by 1-0 scores, all within 13 days (July 6 & 19), by Ken Dixon and Mike Flanagan.

Frank Viola was 1-3 . . . He, Jose Guzman (Texas) and Jimmy Key (Toronto) were tied for most losses against the O's. Viola who pitched 2 complete games in 4 starts had a 6.06 era (ip-32.2, er-22). Only Kirk McCaskill pitched more innings (34) against Baltimore. Viola's lone victory was a route-going effort on July 5 in which he decisioned Mike Flanagan, 7-6, on 11 hits . . . Flanagan also pitched a complete game.

BALTIMORE BATTING: Fred Lynn's lifetime .328 average (461-151) against Minnesota, his 31 homers and 106 rbi are all career highs against one opponent. Over his last 26 games vs. the Twins, starting Aug. 2, '84, he has hit 10 homers and driven in 28 runs. He hit 9th inning homers in 3 straight games against Minny May 10–11–12, '85, at Baltimore, 2 of them "sudden death" game-winners.

Others with .300+ career bat marks against Minny are: Cal Ripken whose .356 average (236-84) average vs. Minny is a career high; Eddie Murray (.310, 410-127), and Alan Wiggins (.325, 40-13).

Ripken who batted .450 (40-18) against them in '86 has never hit below .300 in one season vs. Minnesota ('82-.326, '83-.367, '84-.313, '85-340). He has had three 5-hit games in his career, 2 of them vs. the Twins at HHH, May 5, '85 & Sep 3, '83. In the latter game, he tied or broke 4 club records in a 13-0 Orioles rout. Among the records tied that day was most total bases (13) Lifetime, Rip has driven in 27 runs in 30 games at the "Hump", and has 48 rbi in 60 career games vs. Minnesota overall.

BALTIMORE PITCHING: Don Aase was at his brilliant best against the Twins last year . . . He had 6 saves in 6 appearances, didn't allow a run in 11 innings, and held the Twins to a .086 (35-3) average and 5 total baserunners. Lifetime, Don is 7-2 with 7 saves, and has saved 7 of the O's last 9 wins against Minny.

Ken Dixon (3-0) was the O's most effective starter . . . He had a 1.99 era (22.2 ip, 5 er) and held the Twins to a .187 (75-14) average in 3 starts.

Flanagan who once won 14 straight games vs. the Twins (from May 29, '77 until Apr. 7, '84) is 16-6 lifetime though he was only 1-2 in '86 . . . Mike Boddicker who has worked more innings vs. the Twins (97.2) than against any other A.L. club was 2-1.

Tippy Martinez has thrown only one home run ball in 37 lifetime games against Minnesota, spanning 55.1 innings . . . That blow was by Tom Brunansky at HHH July 4, '84.

VS. NEW YORK ('86: 5-8, Lifetime: 288-281) . . . The Yankees won the season series for the 4th straight year (starting '83) during which time they hold a 35-17 edge (.673) edge over the O's.

Beginning June 23, '84 the Yankees have compiled an even more impressive mark against the Birds (26-8, .765), and in Baltimore the Yankees have gone 13-2 (.867) starting Sep. 15, '84.

However, the Orioles remain the only A.L. team with a lifetime winning record against the Bombers (288-281, .506)). Next in rank are the Milwaukee Brewers (Milwaukee only) at .477 (115-126), followed by Detroit at .476 (797-878).

AT YANKEE STADIUM: The O's were 4-2 at Yankee Stadium after having gone 0-7 there in '85. The Birds' sweep of the 3-game series in NYC, June 6–7–8 (climaxed by the 18-9 win in the finale—see below under "The Longest Game") snapped a string of 10 straight losses that began in Sep. 1984 in the "House that Ruth Built".

As a team the O's batted .326 (227-74), scored 42 runs and hit 10 homers in the 6 games at New York.

Heroes in the O's resurgence at New York were Lee Lacy (3 hrs in one game-see below), John Shelby (.368 avg., 7-for-19, including 2 doubles & 2 homers, and a team leading 9 rbi in 5 games in the 2 series at NYC) and Don Aase (3 saves in 4 appearances).

Lifetime, the O's are 128-139 (.479) in the Bronx, the best lifetime record there by any visiting club. The next highest percentage is Detroit's .414 (250-354), followed by the Oakland A's-regular season only (.411, 44-63). In the new Yankee Stadium which opened in '76 the O's are 37-39.

SEASON SERIES MISCELLANY: In the season series the O's out-hit (.274 to .260), and out-homered (18 to 17) the Yankees who held a 62 to 60 edge in runs and 4.23 to 4.58 advantage in the pitching department. A total of 73 players saw action in the 13 games, 39 Yankees (incl. 16 pitchers) and 34 O's (incl. 14 pitchers).

THE LONGEST GAME: The O's beat the Yankees 18-9 at Yankee Stadium on Sunday afternoon June 8 in the longest 9 inning game (by time) in American League history. The official elapsed time was 4:16 which, of course, does not include a 40 minute rain delay in the bottom of the 4th inning. The game began at 3:09 and did not conclude until 8:05

Lee Lacy was the talk of the town after blasting 3 home runs, scoring 4 runs and amassing 13 total bases (all of which tied O's records) while driving in 6 runs . . . In total the game produced 17 runs, 36 hits (12 for extra bases), 16 walks and 9 pitchers.

YANKEES BATTING: The 2 most productive Yankee batters in the season set were Don Mattingly (.345, 55-19, HR-4, RBI-14) and Dave Winfield (.304, 46-14, HR-3, RBI-11). Mattingly is now at .304 lifetime (191-58) vs. the O's, well below his .337 career mark (2519-849) in the A.L.

Rickey Henderson experienced only modest success (for him) vs. the O's in '86 after an awesome '85. Last year he batted .306 (49-15), scored 13 runs (more than any other O's opponent) and stole 8 bases in 9 tries. His on-base percentage was .414 (58-24). In '85, he hit .460, had a .556 on-base average, stole 17 bases in 18 tries (a record high against the O's) while scoring 20 runs. All 4 of those figures were tops among O's opponents.

Lifetime, Henderson is batting .351 (336-118) vs. the O's, best among actives (200 or more at bats), has a .458 (404-185) on-base percentage, thanks in large measure to 67 career walks, and has stolen 61 bases in 71 attempts (86%).

Ron Kittle who split the season between the White Sox and Yankees hit .188 vs. the O's (48-9). His lifetime average against Baltimore is .186 (140-26) with 5 homers & 15 rbi.

YANKEES PITCHING: Dave Righetti played a key role in all but one of the Yankees' 8 wins against the O's. In 8 appearances he was 1-0 with 6 saves and an era of 1.59 (ip-11.1, er-2) . . . In the last 2 seasons, Righetti is 2-0 with 9 saves in 14 appearances. When he blew a save in Baltimore on Sep. 23, it was his first failure since July 1 after converting 24 straight opportunities. Cal Ripken's home run off Righetti that day was one of only 4 he yielded all year (Rob Deer, Wally Joyner & George Bell).

Dennis Rasmussen, the Yankees' biggest winner at 18-6, was 2-0 vs. the O's in 2 starts with a 1.72 era (ip-15.2, er-3) . . . Bob Tewksbury was 2-1 . . . Ron Guidry went 0-1 and is now 10-8 lifetime. In '86 the O's batted .435 (23-10) against Guidry in his one start against them.

ORIOLES BATTING: Four days after Lacy hit his 3 homers at Yankee Stadium, Juan Beniquez followed suit against the Bombers in the opening game of a series in Baltimore (June 12) . . . There have been 13 three-homer games in O's history, these 2 in back-to-back games (in effect) vs. New York.

Overall, the top hitter in the series was Beniquez (.385, 26-10), but Mike Young (.343, 35-12), Ripken (.321, 53-17) and Alan Wiggins (.320, 25-8) also enjoyed some success at the Yankees' expense. Young went 8-for-19 (.421) at Yankee Stadium in '86.

The two current Orioles with the best lifetime averages against New York are a couple of former Carmines: Jackie Gutierrez (.292, 96-28) and Fred Lynn (.285, 418-119).

ORIOLES PITCHING: Mike Boddicker was the O's only multiple winner against the Yankees at 2-1 . . . He is now 7-4 lifetime vs. the Bombers, 4-0 at Memorial Stadium.

On the losing side, Scott McGregor was 1-3. He is now 7-14 lifetime and has lost 9 of his last 10 decisions to the Yankees. Since he defeated Dave Righetti on Sep. 6, '82 at New York, he has logged only one victory over the Yankees. That was June 6, '86 over Guidry, and it snapped a 6-game losing streak vs. N.Y. Five of his 7 career wins over the Bombers have been shutouts.

Mike Flanagan's loss to the Yankees Sep. 24, '86 (to Rasmussen) snapped a 6-game win streak. It was the first time he'd been beaten by New York since Tommy John defeated him on Aug. 15, '80. Mike who is 12-8 lifetime is first in career wins over the Yankees among actives.

He has been very streaky against them throughout his career. After starting with a 1-2 record, he beat them 5 straight, then lost 5 in a row before the aforementioned 6 game win skein.

Don Aase made 7 appearances in the season series and went 0-0 with 4 saves. He has saved 5 of the O's 6 wins against the Yankees over the last 2 seasons, and his 10 career saves at the Bombers' expense are a career high.

Tippy Martinez who was 0-1 with a save in 3 appearances . . . His lifetime wins (9), losses (7), saves (14), games (64), and innings (94.2) are career highs and his 2.57 era is 2nd only to the 2.55 he holds against the Rangers . . . See more about Tippy & Yankees in his biography.

VS. OAKLAND ('86: 5-7, Lifetime: 130-100 vs. Oak. only) . . . The Orioles dropped the season series to the A's for the first time since '76. From '77 thru '86, the O's are 8-1-1 against the A's, and have a 74-43 (.632) edge in games.

At Oakland the O's were 3-5 (including 2 games rained out in Balmer and made up at the Coliseum . . . see "6 Game Series" below). Despite the losing record in '86, the Birds have gone 67-52 (.563) lifetime in the East Bay area, excluding 3-3 in ALCS competition.

A'S FIRST GAME IN OAKLAND: The Orioles participated in the A's 1st game ever in Oakland in '69 (after the club had moved from K.C. following the '68 season). The date was Apr. 17 and Dave McNally pitched a 2-hitter to beat Lew Krausse, 4-1. Boog Powell had the gwrbi and hit the 1st home run in the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, both in the 2nd inning. Mark Belanger, Brooks Robinson, and the A's Rick Monday also homered in that game.

SIX GAME SERIES: The O's played the first 6 game series in their 33 year history, Aug. 28–31, in Oakland. It was necessitated by back-to-back rainouts of the last 2 scheduled O's-A's games in Baltimore (Aug. 20 and 21).

The Birds salvaged only one of those games (the next to last, Sat., Aug. 30) thanks to a great piece of relieving by Odell Jones who protected a 5-4 lead and allowed only one hit over the last 4.1 innings while striking out 6.

At the start of the set the O's dropped consecutive doubleheaders on Thu. and Fri. (8/28–29), and the Birds' MVP Don Aase had the misfortune of becoming the first Oriole ever to lose both ends of a doubleheader on the same day. That ignominy befell him the first day in town, and to make it worse both defeats occurred in "sudden death", and both were save opportunities . . . Wes Stock is the only pitcher to have won 2 games in one day in an Orioles uniform. He did it at Cleveland back near the turn of the century (5/26/63).

In game one, a 2-out homer by Dave Kingman with one on (after Carney Lansford and Jose Canseco had struck out) gave the A's a 5-4 win. In the nightcap Lansford's 2-run triple produced another come-from-behind win, 8-7.

After losing the 2nd doubleheader, the O's dropped into last place after the all-star break for the first time since the inception of divisional play in '69. This was not the first time the O's had dropped twin bills in successive days. It had happened twice before but not since May '57.

A'S BATTING: Tony Phillips was a one-man show in Baltimore during the A's first '86 visit, May 16–18. He went 10-for-13 in the series, became the first Oakland representative ever to hit for the cycle on the 16th, going 5-for-5 that night, and had 7 straight hits at one stretch. In the only other 2 games he played against the O's in '86, Phillips went 0-for-10 (he was out much of the 2nd half with injuries).

Phillips (.435, 23-10), and Alfredo Griffin (.354, 48-17) were the top hitters against the O's but Lansford (11 rbi) and Canseco (10 rbi) were the most productive. During his 2 years in Oakland, Griffin has a .348 average (92-32) vs. Baltimore.

Reggie Jackson has hit 40 career homers vs. the O's (including 2 in the '71 ALCS), tops among actives, though he has not hit one in his last 29 games against the Birds, since July 25, '83 (off Mike Boddicker at California). He ranks tied for 3rd with Al Kaline on the all-time list vs. the O's, behind Harmon Killebrew (70) and Mickey Mantle (44).

A'S PITCHING: Moose Haas beat the O's in Baltimore on May 16 for only the 2nd time in his career. He's 6-8 overall against the Birds, but only 2-4 in his home town. That win gave him a 7-1 overall record and the major league lead in wins, but injuries prevented him from winning another game the rest of the season.

Dave Stewart in 3 appearances including 2 starts (one cg shutout) was 2-0 with an 0.46 era (ip-19.2, er-1) . . . Chris Codiroli went 0-2.

O'S BATTING: The O's top hitters against the A's lifetime are: John Shelby (.308, 107-33), Eddie Murray (.306, 408-125) and Alan Wiggins (.326, 46-15) . . . In '86, Murray hit .381 (42-16) and drove in 15 runs in 12 games. Larry Sheets led the O's with 4 homers and batted .350 (40-14)

O'S PITCHING: Scott McGregor, now 11-3 lifetime vs. the A's, has beaten them 8 straight times since his last loss on Aug. 22, '81 (at Oakland) when he was beaten by Rick Langford, 2-0. He has a 6-0 career record against the A's at Memorial Stadium.

Mike Flanagan was 0-0 in 2 starts and is still 15-5 lifetime and 10-1 at the Coliseum. His only career loss at the Coliseum was on Aug. 25, '85, a defeat that marred his heretofore perfect 10-0 record. Mike's era at Oakland is a stunning 2.33 (ip-109, h-80, er-28) . . . At home against the Athletics, Mike is only 5-4 with a 5.43 (IP-69.2, ER-42).

Though he has a losing lifetime record (3-5) against Oakland and is 1-4 over the last 2 years, Mike Boddicker has a 2.84 career era (IP-63.1, ER-21) vs. the A's. Aase has a 2.41 (IP-93, ER-25) despite his '86 problems against Oakland.

VS. SEATTLE ('85: 6-6, Lifetime: 72-38) . . . The O's have never lost a season series to the Mariners against whom they are 7-0-3 in the decade the M's have been in the league. However, the 2 clubs have tied at 6-6 in each of the last 2 seasons.

Overall, the O's .655 (72-38) percentage against Seattle is their best against a single opponent. At Baltimore the O's have maintained a 38-17 (.691) advantage over the M's (also Birds' best vs. one club) . . . The Mariners have won only 3 of 20 series played at Memorial Stadium. They lost their first 14 games there, until former Oriole Mike Parrott beat Sammy Stewart July 25, '79. Since that time, the O's edge has been 24-17 (.585).

At the Kingdome, the Orioles have a 34-21 advantage (.618).

O'S ON WEST COAST: For the Orioles, 1986 was their first losing season on the west coast since '77 . . . They went 8-12 in the three Pacific ports of call to snap a string of 9 straight years in which they had posted a cumulative .500 or better record.

Over that period ('77 thru '85) the O's had logged a combined 87-52 (.626) regular season record while visiting in California and Washington. In '86 the O's were: 2-4 at California, 3-5 at Oakland and 3-3 at Seattle. Over the past 10 years the O's still have highly respectable records in the 3 ballparks: California (30-23), Oakland (33-23) & Seattle (32-18) for a total of 95-64 (.597).

MARINERS BATTING: The top 2 Seattle hitters were, interestingly enough, Dave Henderson (.417, 24-10) and Spike Owen (.360, 25-9), both of whom were traded to Boston on August 19.

The only Mariner who stuck it all year and hit over .300 was Harold Reynolds (.318, 44-14). Ken Phelps hit 4 of his 24 homers against the O's and tied Bill Presley for the anti-Baltimore rbi lead with 9.

MARINERS PITCHING: Mike Moore was 3-1 vs. the O's in 4 starts and all 3 wins were at the expense of Ken Dixon (who also lost 3 times to Roger Clemens). Moore hurled 2 complete games and registered a 2.87 era (ip-31.1, h-32, er-10). Moore is now 6-7 lifetime, but in the last 2 years has gone 5-2 with a 2.26 era (ip-59.2, er-15) and held Orioles batters to a .223 average (220-49).

Mike Morgan did something in a Seattle uniform last year he hadn't ever done for any previous club—beat the Orioles. It took a little more than 8 years since he broke into pro ball at the major league level in '78 for Charlie Finley's Oakland A's and lost both his first 2 starts to the O's (June 11 & 17). His victory was a complete game, 6-2 win over Mike Boddicker September 6 at Memorial Stadium. He is now 1-8 lifetime vs. the Birds.

Mark Langston was 1-2 in 3 starts, and had a monstrous 9.22 era (ip-13.2, er-14) while O's batters combed him for a .397 average (63-25).

ORIOLES BATTING: Despite a .294 (428-126) team-wide average against the Mariners who hit only .254 (402-102) vs. the Orioles, the O's scored only one less run than the M's (51 to 50).

Eight of the 18 O's who came to bat against Seattle pitching batted over .300 in '86, led by Cal Ripken (51-18) and Mike Young (34-12), both of whom hit .353 in the season series. Eddie Murray batted .349 (49-17) without a home run. Young went 7-for-15 (.467) in the Kingdome last year.

Larry Sheets (.339, 59-20), Ripken (.306, 242-74) and Murray (.304, 405-123) all sport .300+ career averages vs. Seattle.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Mike Boddicker was 2-2 with a 4.56 era (ip-25.2, er-13) vs. Seattle and the M's batted .300 (100-30) against him last year, but lifetime he is 5-2.

He was a perfect 5-0 and had a career 1.33 era vs. Seattle (ip-47.1, er-7) before his last 2 starts against them in '86, on Aug. 27 and Sep. 6. Then he lost both and was roughed up for 8 earned runs in 9.1 innings to boost his lifetime era to 2.37 (ip-57, er-15), still his best against one club.

Ken Dixon beat Morgan in his first '86 effort vs. the M's, then lost 3 in a row to Moore. He's 2-3 lifetime . . . Mike Flanagan was 0-0 but is 9-4 lifetime, and is the biggest winner against Seattle among current O's . . . Scott McGregor is 7-5.

VS. TEXAS ('86: 5-7, Lifetime: 102-66, Texas only.) . . . The O's lost the season series to the Rangers for the first time since '77, and for only the 3rd time since the Senators became the Rangers in '72.

In that 15 year period, the O's have won 9, lost 3 and tied 3. The Rangers by winning 7 of the 12 games put an end to the O's dominance over the previous 4 years ('82: 9-3, '83: 9-3, '84: 9-3, '85: 10-2) during which they had gone 37-11 (.772).

Despite their 2-4 record at Arlington in '86, the O's have maintained a lifetime 57-28 (.671) log in Texas, their best (by percentage) in any foreign city.

The Rangers have the distinction of being the first of only 2 teams to go undefeated over a whole season at Baltimore. They were 5-0 in '77. Lifetime at Memorial Stadium the Rangers (excl. D.C.) are a respectable 38-45 (.458), despite going only 8-22 over the last 6 seasons (3-3 in '86), including 0-0 in strike-shortened '81.Up to that time (thru '80) the Rangers were the only visiting club in the A.L. with a winning record in Baltimore (30-23).

3 GRAND SLAMS: Wednesday, Aug. 6 was a day that will live in infamy as far as the Orioles are concerned. It is also a day that will live in the baseball record books.

It was a game in which, for the first time ever, 3 grand slams were hit (Toby Harrah, Larry Sheets and Jim Dwyer) . . . It was the 5th time in history that teammates have hit slams in the same inning (Sheets and Dwyer). For Harrah, it was slam #5 (not including the one he'd hit at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown just 2 days earlier against the Royals in the annual Hall of Fame exhibition). For the 2 Orioles contributors it was slam #1.

This was a wild game, ultimately won by the Rangers 13-11, and it marked the beginning of the O's disastrous end of season 14-42 plunge into last place. Ten pitchers (5 by each side) saw action (with little distinction) and threw a combined total of 346 pitches (Texas-170, O's 176). The Rangers walked 10, including 7 by starter Bobby Witt.

Texas mauled O's starter Ken Dixon, who didn't retire a batter in the 2nd, was Harrah's victim, and the visitors led 6-0 after 3 innings. Then in the home 4th, the O's erupted for 9 big ones in an inning that included the 2 slams and 5 walks to take the lead. They padded that advantage on Lee Lacy's 2-run homer in the 6th to make it 11-6 but the game wasn't over. The Rangers rallied for 6 in the 8th to go ahead against eventual loser Rich Bordi and scored once more in the 9th.

The official time of game was 3:42, and that doesn't include the 1:13 rain delay at the start. The game did not actually end until 12:30 A.M. The 13 runs and 19 hits were the most ever registered by the Rangers against Baltimore. Earlier in the season, Apr. 19 in Balmer, the O's-Rangers played a 3:44 9-inning game, the longest in Rangers history, but only 2 minutes longer than the Aug. 6 debacle.

That game also marked the end of a particularly awesome home run display by the O's who over the span of 22 innings (Aug. 4, 5 & 6) hit 11 home runs.

RANGERS BATTING: The top hitters against Baltimore in '86, among the regulars, were 2 departed Rangers—Gary Ward (.462, 26-12) and Toby Harrah (.400, 35-14). Ward was actually the leading hitter in the league vs. the O's among all hitters with 25 or more at bats. Pete Incaviglia batted only .200 (40-8) and fanned 12 times but also paced the Rangers with 3 homers and 9 rbi against the O's.

Oddibe McDowell continued to struggle vs. the Orioles against whom he is hitting .162 (68-11) in 2 seasons . . . Catcher Don Slaught, on the other hand, had another good year at the plate against Baltimore (.341, 41-14) and is hitting .362 lifetime (130-47) vs. the O's. That's the highest average by any active opponent with 100 or more lifetime at bats against Baltimore . . . The veteran Tom Paciorek is a .302 lifetime hitter against the Birds (199-60).

RANGERS PITCHING: Three Ranger relievers—Greg Harris, Dale Mohorcic and Jeff Russell—had a combined 0.00 era vs. the O's and were 4-0 with 2 saves while pitching an aggregate of 21.1 innings. Harris and Russell were each 2-0 and Mohorcic saved 2.

Jose Guzman, on the other hand, was 0-3 with a 6.00 era in 4 starts (ip-21, h-24, er-14) . . . He was tied with Frank Viola (Twins) and Jimmy Key (Blue Jays) for most losses to the '86 O's . . . Charlie Hough was 0-1 and is now 2-6 lifetime.

ORIOLES BATTING: Over the last 2 years Mike Young has driven in 22 runs in 17 games against the Rangers while batting .387 (62-24) with 6 doubles and 4 home runs. Lifetime, he has a .338 average (77-26), a career high.

Jim Dwyer over the last 3 years has hit Texas pitching at a .442 clip (43-19) and has raised his career average vs. the Rangers from .174 to .303 (89-27) in that span . . . Last year, though Jim had only 15 at bats against the Rangers, he tied Eddie Murray for the club rbi lead (9) in the season series.

They are just two of 6 current O's with career averages over .300: Lee Lacy (.347, 75-26), Cal Ripken (.335, 236-79), Fred Lynn (.301, 412-124) and Jim Traber (.364, 22-8) . . . Ripken, one of 2 Orioles to have hit for the cycle in the O's 33 A.L. seasons along with Brooks Robinson, performed that feat at Arlington Stadium May 6, '84, homering off Dave Tobik on his last time at bat.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Two '86 Orioles pitchers remain un-beaten life-time against Texas: the departed Storm Davis (to San Diego for Terry Kennedy) and Mike Boddicker. Davis was 3-0 last year and left the American League with a 10-0 record, and a 2.07 era (ip-113, er-26). He held Rangers hitters to a .204 average (401-82) lifetime.

Boddicker is 7-0 with a 2.49 era (ip-72.1, er-20) . . . Others with outstanding career figures vs. Texas are: Tippy Martinez (6-1 with 10 saves and a 2.55) and Scott McGregor (8-2) who won his first 6 career decisions against the Rangers . . . Boddicker and Tippy are both 4-0 at Texas and the latter has saved 7 games there.

Don Aase in 2 seasons with the O's has allowed only one earned run in 14.1 innings (0.63 era) . . . Last year he did not yield an earned run in 8 innings, but lost a game on April 11 when 2 errors (one by Aase himself) led to 2 unearned tallies and a 5-4 defeat.

VS. TORONTO ('86: 8-5, Lifetime: 78-49) . . . After going 8-17 the previous 2 years while losing both season series the O's captured the set for the 8th time in the 10 year history of the rivalry. The O's established the edge by winning 5 of 7 games at Toronto while splitting 6 games at home.

The Orioles out-hit (.269 to .217), out-pitched (3.08 to 4.45) and out-scored (61 to 49) the Jays.

Though the O's are only 8-11 at Memorial Stadium against the Jays the past 3 years, they nevertheless hold a lifetime 44-20 (.688) advantage in Baltimore, 2nd only to their home record against the Mariners (38-17, .691). At Toronto the O's are a more modest 34-29, .540.

MEMORABLE MOMENTS: There have been many memorable moments in the O's-Blue Jays rivalry over the past decade including the "Earl Weaver Forfeit" on Sep. 15, '77 and the 24-10 pasting the Jays handed the O's in Toronto June 26, '78 (the night Ellie Hendricks and Larry Harlow pitched).

However, for the Orioles, the one that stands out above the rest was the "3 Pickoff Game" in Baltimore Aug. 24, '83. The O's were down 3-1 with 2 on and 2 down in the 9th when they suddenly tied the score on rbi singles by Benny Ayala and Al Bumbry to force the game into overtime.

Because of extensive offensive maneuvering in the bottom of the 9th, the O's took the field in the 10th with strangers at 3 positions. John Lowenstein was at 2nd base, Gary Roenicke at 3rd, and Lenn Sakata was catching.

Cliff Johnson led off the 10th with a home run off Tim Stoddard that put the Jays back on top. When Barry Bonnell followed with a single, Tippy Martinez came on and proceeded to get out of the inning without retiring a batter.

First, he picked off Bonnell, then walked Jesse Barfield and picked him off, and then gave up a single to Willie Upshaw before picking him off as well.

Cal Ripken led off the O's 10th with a game-tying homer and 2 outs later with 2 on, the veteran (of one inning) backstop Sakata gave the O's a "sudden death" 7-4 win with with a 3-run homer off Joey McLaughlin.

The next night the 2 clubs were scoreless until Bonnell homered in the 10th. However, the Birds bounced back again on singles by Joe Nolan and Bumbry and a game-winning 2-run double by Dan Ford to win again in "sudden death". Tippy was the winning pitcher in both games.

BLUE JAYS BATTING: The top hitting regulars in the season series were Lloyd Moseby (.286, 49-14) and Jesse Barfield (.280, 50-14). The latter also led the Jays in homers (4) and rbi (10) vs. the O's. Lifetime, Barfield has a .321 career average vs. the O's (168-54).

On the other side of the coin, Willie Upshaw (.122, 49-6), Ernie Whitt (.118, 17-2), Buck Martinez (.000, 15-0), Garth Iorg (.188, 16-3), Rance Mulliniks (.200, 25-5), Cliff Johnson (.182, 22-4), and Cecil Fielder (.077, 13-1) all hit .200 or below. However, Johnson did hit 2 homers vs. the O's giving him 20 lifetime (a career high vs. one opponent), including 13 in Baltimore.

BLUE JAYS PITCHING: Jim Clancy (2-1 overall in '86 vs. O's) was probably the most effective pitcher to work in Memorial Stadium in '86 . . . He started 2 games, won them both, pitched 18 innings and didn't allow a run, blanking Ken Dixon (4/27) and Scott McGregor (8/12). Clancy has a string of 21 consecutive scoreless innings alive in Baltimore, starting with the 7th inning on Aug. 4, '84.

Lifetime, he is 4-6 at Baltimore and 3 of his 4 victories have been shutouts (add 4/17/83). Overall, he has pitched 10 shutouts in the A.L. and 4 of them have been against the Orioles (one at Toronto). His lifetime mark vs. the O's is 9-11 with 10 complete games.

Dave Stieb was 0-0 vs. the O's in '86 and is 3-7 lifetime. He hasn't had a decision against Baltimore since he beat Jim Palmer Apr. 18, '84 at Toronto. Jimmy Key was 0-3 vs. the O's, tying him for most losses in '86 to the Birds with Frank Viola (Twins) and Jose Guzman (Rangers). Key is 0-5 vs. the O's since he became a starter in '85 (was 2-1 as rookie reliever in '84).

Except for 2/3 of one inning in Baltimore on Apr.26, Tom Henke would have had a 2.77 era (instead of the 3.35 he wound up with). In that game he started the 8th inning with the score tied at 5 and he fanned 2 of the first 3 batters. After that the next 6 hitters reached safely and he was ultimately charged with 6 runs in the inning as well as the loss.

Rookie sensation Mark Eichhorn appeared in 6 games vs. the O's, was 1-0, and allowed only one earned run in 12.2 innings while holding the O's to a .163 average (43-7).

ORIOLES BATTING: Fred Lynn hit .413 against the Jays in '86 (46-19) and Lee Lacy .378 (45-17), but Cal Ripken who batted only .241 (54-13) in the season series led the O's with 10 rbi in the 13 games. Rick Burleson hit .457 (35-16) vs. the Jays in '86 and is batting .364 (80-32) against them since the start of '81.

Jim Dwyer has a .311 (148-46) career average vs. the Blue Jays and career high 8 home runs and 26 rbi . . . has hit 7 of those home runs at Exhibition Stadium (in only 84 lifetime at bats there). Lee Lacy is batting .328 (67-22) and Eddie Murray .307 (427-131) . . . Eddie's 23 homers and 81 rbi are 2nd only among all Blue Jays opponents (active or retired) to Jim Rice's 30 home runs and 89 rbi.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Mike Flanagan (17-7) and Scott McGregor (13-6) are the American League's 2 biggest winners lifetime against Toronto since the Jays' first season, '77. Flanagan who has also pitched more innings vs. Toronto than any other pitcher has a 2.77 career era (ip-208, er-64). He is 11-2 against the Jays at Memorial Stadium. McGregor whose era is a career low 2.87 (ip-153.2, h-49) once beat the Toronto 7 straight times and was 9-2 against them before going 4-4 over the last 3 years.

Flanagan, 2-1 in '86, held the Jays to a .208 average (101-21) . . . The only other multiple winner was Mike Boddicker (2-0), while Don Aase was 1-1 with 3 saves in 6 appearances.

BIRDS AND THE BROWNS

The Baltimore Orioles were charter members of the American League when it began operation in 1901. However, after two seasons, the club was moved to New York where it ultimately became known as the New York Yankees.

The franchise from which the current Orioles descend came into the A.L. in 1901 representing Milwaukee, but in '02 was transferred to St. Louis and named the Browns. In 52 seasons ('02 thru '53) the Browns were, perhaps, the most unsuccessful team in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465 (.433) and finished in the 2nd division 40 times. They won their only pennant in '44 then lost the world series in 6 games to their home town rivals, the Cardinals.

In June, 1951, Bill and Charles DeWitt sold their controlling interest to Bill Veeck who operated the club for the next 2½ seasons. On September 29, 1953, he sold his shares to a group of Baltimore businessmen who brought major league baseball back to this city after a 51-year lapse.

ALL-STAR GAME NOTES

1986: Oriole reliever Don Aase was called on to protect a one-run lead in the 9th inning with one out and runners on 1st and 3rd. Aase induced San Francisco's Chris Brown to hit into a game-ending double play as the American League held on for a 3-2 win at the Astrodome on July 15, in the 57th all-star game. While the A.L.'s win was only their 6th in the last 33 games (beginning '58), it has been Oriole relievers who have saved 4 of those victories: Billy O'Dell ('58, '59), Milt Pappas ('62) and Aase.

Joining Aase on the all-star team were Cal Ripken, Jr., who was making his 4th all-star game appearance, 3rd as a starter, and Eddie Murray, who was at his 7th all-star game, 6th as a reserve. With 1,486,806 votes, Ripken was the leading vote getter in the A.L. and 2nd overall to NY Met Darryl Strawberry (1,619,511). Ripken received more than a million more votes than the next closest A.L. shortstop (Alan Trammell, 391,117).

Ripken was 0-for-4 with two strikeouts. Murray, bothered by a sore left hamstring, did not play.

Elected Starters: Ripken joined Brooks Robinson as the only 2 Orioles to be elected to start 3 consecutive all-star games. Brooks was elected to the starting lineup 4 straight times ('71-'74). Fourteen

Orioles have been elected to start in the 17 years of fan voting. In addition to Ripken and Brooks, Orioles who have been elected to starting positions are Boog Powell ('70, '71), Frank Robinson ('70, '71), Bobby Grich ('76), Ken Singleton ('81) and Murray ('85).

Selection of the starting team was returned to the fans in '70 under the sponsorship of the Gillette Company in cooperation with Major League Baseball. Following the ballot box "stuffing" incident in Cincinnati in '57, responsibility was entrusted to major league players for 12 years ('58 thru '69).

Orioles All-Star MVPs: Three Orioles have won "MVP" honors in all-star competition: :Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks Robinson ('66) and Frank Robinson ('71).

O'Dell, the former Orioles lefthander who also pitched for the Giants, Braves and Pirates, hurled the last three innings of the only all-star game ever played in Baltimore and retired all nine batters he faced to protect a one run lead, thus giving the A.L. a 4-3 win.

Brooks won the '66 Arch Ward Memorial Trophy on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort at bat (including a triple) and an 8-for-8 performance afield. He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank's fourth inning home run at Detroit in '71 put the A.L. on top to stay and earned him "mvp" honors. It was the first all-star victory since '62 for the A.L. which did not win another all-star game until '83.

THREE STRAIGHT PENNANTS

The Orioles' 3 straight pennants '69–'70–'71 were not unprecedented in Baltimore baseball history. The National League Orioles won 3 straight pennants '94–'96. Six of their number ultimately were elected to the Hall of Fame: John McGraw, Wilbert Robinson, Hughie Jennings, Willie Keeler, Dan Brouters and Joe Kelley.

MEMORIAL STADIUM—A BRIEF HISTORY

Construction of Baltimore Memorial Stadium began on the site of old Municipal Stadium in 1949. However work was suspended for lack of sufficient fund authorization in the early 50's, and didn't resume until 1953.

Despite the construction the International League Orioles continued to play their home games here on 33rd Street (thru '53) as did the new Baltimore Colts franchise when it emigrated from Dallas (Texans) prior to the 1953 football season.

Essentially the new stadium was completed in October 1953, but refinements continued on thru the spring of 1954, the American League Orioles first season in Baltimore.

The original Municipal Stadium was built expressly for football and was completed in 1924. However, when old Oriole Park (29th Street and Greenmount Avenue) which was owned by the Dunn family burned down on the night and early morning of July 3–4, 1944, it became of necessity the new home of the Baltimore Orioles.

During a hastily scheduled two week road trip, Municipal Stadium was made ready for baseball with home-plate in what is now center field. Later that year, the Orioles went on to win the Little World Series and for one of those games against the Louisville Colonels, drew an astonishing 52,833, while the real World Series (between the Cardinals and Browns) in Sportsman's Park, St. Louis was drawing a paltry 31,630.

Memorial Stadium was built for $6 million on 28¾ acres of city owned property and financed by two bond issues.

Over the years there have been significant changes made. For example, in '54 the distance from home plate to the fence in dead center was 450'. That has been whittled down gradually to its present 405'.

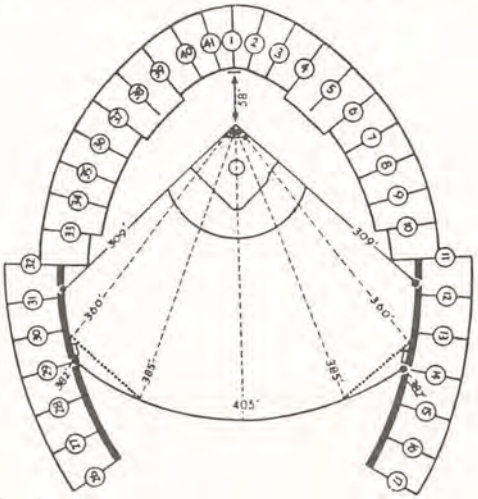
The Orioles dugout was initially on the first base side, but when some 2,600 field boxes were installed in front of the original boxes in '61 new dugouts had to be built and the home team moved over to 3rd base. Prior to that construction, there was an 8' wall between the front row of the boxes and the field, and Baltimore led the world in foul territory.

In 1964 four additional upper deck sections were added, increasing the capacity by another 2,600 seats. In 1970 (mid-season) a new scoreboard (now known as the old scoreboard) was installed and the original squirrel-infested structure demolished.

Subsequently, the old splintery wooden benches (without backs) were replaced by chairs and non-wooden benches with back rests and a 35th row was added to the upper deck.

In 1980, six new towers, housing a new ticket window and additional ticket office space, storage areas and rest rooms , were completed.

Then in 1985, construction was completed on new and badly needed Orioles administrative offices, and a large new state of the art video board (Diamond Vision by Mitsubishi) was added in right-center field as a dramatic and colorful complement to its 15 year old cousin in left center.



Additional measurements: Concrete wall—14 ft. high, Wire fence—7 ft. high.

FARM SYSTEM – 1986

Baltimore's five farm teams finished with a composite record of 317-250 (.559), the 2nd best record in the majors in '86 behind the Milwaukee Brewers (361-263, .579). It was the fourth best record in the O's 33-year history and best since '76. Over the past 24 seasons, the O's minor league organization record is 8100-7389 (.523). During that time, the O's have been selected as the Topps "Baseball Organization of the Year" three times ('61, '71 and '72).

Three of the Orioles minor league clubs qualified for post-season play and all three advanced to their respective championship rounds only to lose. Rochester advanced to the finals of the International League playoffs, downing Pawtucket 3 games to one in the best-of-5 semi-finals, but fell to Richmond 3 games to 2 in the finals.

Hagerstown, which won both the first and 2nd halves of the Carolina League's Northern Division, lost to Winston-Salem 3 games to one in the league championship series. Newark finished 2nd in the New York-Penn League's McNamara Division and qualified for a "wild card" berth in the league's playoffs. The Orioles stunned Oneonta, the team with the best record in the league, in a one-game playoff and advanced to the league's championship round. Once there, however, they lost 2 straight to St. Catherines in the best-of-3 championship round.

Rochester (75-63) finished with their best mark since '76, only their third winning season since then. The Red Wings attracted 308,807 fans and led the International League in attendance gain with an increase of more than 100,000 over '85. Rochester Manager John Hart was named the league's manager of the year. CF Ken Gerhart led the league in home runs (28), the most by a Red Wing since Terry Crowley led the IL with 30 in '77. Gerhart also led the league in total bases (232). Luis DeLeon earned a league-high 12 saves. Rochester also led the league in fielding (.976), home runs (129), slugging (.408) and posted the best home record in the IL (43-25, .632).

Charlotte (71-73) finished fourth in the Southern League's Eastern Division. The O's were led by 1B Chris Padget, who hit for a club record .324 average. 3B-OF Tom Dodd drove in a club record 100 runs, in 105 games before he was promoted to Baltimore in August. Overall, Dodd led the organization in home runs (31) and rbi (108). LHP Eric Bell led the Southern League in earned run average (3.05) and was 9-6 at Charlotte before his promotion to Rochester in late June. He led the organization in wins (16) adding 7 wins at Rochester. Padget, Dodd and Billy Ripken were named to the SL all-star team.

Hagerstown (91-48) improved 26 games over their '85 finish (65-72). Their record was 3rd best in the minor leagues. The Suns broke 19 club and individual records including most wins in a season. 3B Craig Worthington led the Carolina League with a club record 105 rbi, the league's 2nd highest total in the last 19 years, and with 16 game winning rbi. Pete Stanicek finished 4th in the league in batting with a .317 average while leading the league in runs (116) and stolen bases (77), both club marks. His 77 steals were 6th best in all of baseball. Stanicek, Worthington and OF Sherwin Cijntje were all named to the all-star team.

LHP Jeff Ballard won the league's earned run average crown posting a club record 1.85 mark and was 9-5 before he was promoted to Charlotte and eventually Rochester. RHP Chester Stanhope tied for 2nd in the league in wins (14), a club record. RHP Scott Stranski saved 19 games for the Suns before his promotion to Charlotte and eventually Rochester. He saved 29 games total.

Newark (41-37) reached the championship round of the NY/Penn League playoffs for the 3rd time in the last 4 years. LHP Gordon Beatty led the league in wins (11), complete games (8) and innings pitched (119.1). RHP Doug Cinnella finished the season with a 2-5 record, but both wins were no hitters: 1-0 over Oneonta on July 23 and 3-0 over Auburn on Aug. 3. DH Frank Bellino and RHP Alan Koonce were named to the league's all-star team.

Bluefield (39-29) was led by the OF Ken Adderly, who was named to the Appalachian League all-star team.

The major league draft is held annually at baseball's winter meetings, and is followed with a separate selection by National Association clubs from class AAA to A levels . . . Until 1958 major league clubs could draft players within a range between $15,000 (for AAA players) and $2,000 (for class D players) . . . In 1958 the price for big league drafts rose to $25,000.

However, in 1959, a first year player draft at the big league level was set up to discourage the payment of inordinately large bonus payments to free agents. The new rule provided that first year players could be selected at the major league level (if not protected on a major league team's 40 man roster) for $12,000. In 1961 an even lower draft price was set up for more recent first year players. That figure was $8,000.

That year, incidentally, the Baltimore organization set a record of sorts by being relieved of 19 eligible first year players (seven during the big league selections and 11 more during the minor league draft). In 1965 the first year player draft began to lose its significance and then disappeared in 1970.

CLYDE KLUTTZ MEMORIAL AWARD

Named in honor of the Orioles' director of player development who died in May, 1979, the CLYDE KLUTTZ MEMORIAL AWARD is presented annually to the Baltimore organization player "who best exemplified Clyde's integrity, desire, dedication, and loyalty to the game of baseball and the Baltimore Orioles." Clyde had spent 41 years in baseball when he passed away at the age of 61.

The winners of the Kluttz Award to date: 1979–Tom Eaton (2b); 1980–Cal Ripken, Jr. (3b); 1981–Victor Rodriguez (2b); 1982–John Shelby (of); 1983–Mike Boddicker (p); 1984–Al Pardo (c); 1985–John Habyan (p). The 1986 winner will be announced in April.

ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame, created in 1977 to honor those who have made exceptional contributions to the franchise since Baltimore returned to the major leagues in 1954, comprises 14 members. In all likelihood there will be up to two more members when the results of the annual late winter election are known.

Previously elected members (year elected in paren):

Brooks Robinson, 3b ('77)
Frank Robinson, of ('77)
Dave McNally, 1hp ('78)
Boog Powell, 1b ('79)
Gus Triandos, c ('81)
Luis Aparicio, ss ('82)
Mike Cuellar, 1hp ('82)
Mark Belanger, ss ('83)
Earl Weaver, mgr ('83)
Paul Blair, of ('84)
Paul Richards, mgr ('84)
Milt Pappas, rhp ('85)
Jim Palmer, rhp ('86)
Ken Singleton, of ('86)

The Orioles Hall of Fame was a creation of the Oriole Advocates and the brain child of a couple of their distinguished past presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, back in 1977. That organization continues to administer the annual election. This year the president of the Oriole Advocates Hall of Fame Committee is Ray Weinstein.

To become a member, a candidate must be mentioned on 75% of the ballots cast by selected sports reporters and Orioles officials as well as veteran members of the Oriole Advocates. To qualify for nomination, he must have spent at least three seasons with the Orioles and must be one year removed from the capacity in which he is being considered.

ORIOLES ENSHRINED AT COOPERSTOWN

Six "modern" ('54–'87) Orioles have been elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, New York—five of them in the last six years (year of induction and percentage of votes received are in paren):

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%*)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%*)
George Kell ('83, Veterans Committee Selection)
Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)
Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)

Additionally, there are 15 others enshrined in the Hall, men who played and/or managed here during Baltimore's rich baseball past (position in paren):

Frank "Home Run" Baker (3b)
Charles "Chief" Bender (p)
Roger Bresnahan (c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)
Wm. "Candy" Cummings (p)
Robert M. "Lefty" Grove (p)
Rogers Hornsby (2b)
Wee Willie Keeler (rf)
Joe Kelley (of-if)
Rube Marquard (p)
Joe "Iron Man" McGinnity (p)
John McGraw (3b, mgr)
Wilbert Robinson (c, mgr)
George Herman "Babe" Ruth (of)
Hughie Jennings (ss)

3-OTHERS: There are three other Hall of Famers who represented Baltimore ballclubs in non-playing and non-managing capacities:

George Weiss, a one-time International League Orioles general manager who later immortalized himself as g.m. of the Yankees . . . Luke Appling, a Hall of Fame shortstop for the White Sox, who coached for the O's one year ('63). And, the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors and who scouted for the O's from 1960–1971.

NOTES: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons, but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager. . . . Rube Marquard pitched only 27 innings for the Orioles ('29), but he lived here for nearly 60 years before he died in '80.."Chief" Bender did most of his pitching for the Philadelphia A's for whom he was 206-111 . In his one full year in Baltimore, pitching for the Outlaw Federal League Terrapins, he was only 4-16.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr. in 1914 and made his debut with the Orioles that year as a pitcher. He was, of course, elected to the Hall as an outfielder . . . Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include Baker, Grove, and three who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill) and Al Kaline (Balmer).

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels, was unique when it was created in July, 1960 and remains so today, 27 years later.

The membership of the Advocates comprises some 75 men and women drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial contributions, primarily to youth organizations; have played a leading role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street, and its conversion into a Babe Ruth and Orioles Museum; and, in 1977, established the Orioles "Hall of Fame."

The organization has also served as an essential right arm of the Orioles' Public Relations and Marketing Departments. Probably the biggest contribution of all in that area has been the formation and annual administration of the "Junior Orioles" program.

Originated in '63 with an enrollment of 75 youngsters, the Junior Orioles grew to a record 20,000 members by '77. It is a high-quality "knothole" program, and a huge undertaking requiring much care, time and effort.

Among a wide variety of other activities, the Oriole Advocates also serve as distributors of Orioles souvenirs on "giveaway" days at the ballpark, assuring that all eligible fans receive the items to which they are entitled.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are all volunteers, constantly demonstrating just how important are the qualities of competence and dedication.

The organization's 1987 officers: President—Burke L. Barrett . . . 1st Vice- President—Jack Gray . . . 2nd Vice-President—Daniel J. March . . . Treasurer—Wayne L. Heckrotte . . . Secretary—Robert V. Bates . . . Immediate Past President—Peck Minder . . . The Board of Directors includes: Fred J. Adkins, Bernard B. Lochte, Ray Weinstein.

Among the major committee chairmen are: Thomas Hessenauer (Junior Orioles), Lochte (Membership), Weinstein (Hall of Fame), and Frederick S. Goodwin (Special Events & Special Ass't to the President).

ORIOLES "DESIGNATED HITTERS"

The Orioles "Designated Hitters" have been selling Orioles season tickets for the past eight years (starting '80) and, in that period, the pre-season sale has jumped dramatically from 1,623 in '79 to a more than 11,000. Final 1987 figures will not be available until well after this media guide has gone to press since the season ticket "selling season" continues right up to opening day.

Membership in the "DH's" is expected to comprise about 65 members in '87; men and women who live and work within the Orioles drawing area (Birdland).

To achieve membership candidates must meet required sales minimums. The formula is based on a blend of new sales and renewals, and everyone must requalify each year.

In '86, Glenn Babcock, Jennifer Sclafani and Howard Weinberg were the leading veteran members in sales while Valerie Stewart and Lou Hurwitz were "co-rookies of the year."

Incentives for members this year include: the annual weekend outing to the O's spring training headquarters in Miami and a special custom "DH" blazer for all qualifiers.

And, for those at the very top of the sales ladder, mid-summer junkets to both the All-Star Game in Oakland and to the Orient (Hong Kong, Japan & China) are scheduled.

The "Designated Hitters" organization, patterned after the Kansas City Royals' highly successful "Royal Lancers," was founded in September '79 by then Baltimore City Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select group of Baltimoreans working closely with the Orioles front office.

The idea was to enlist the talents of successful people from the business community to serve as the main season ticket sales force in an effort to expand the Orioles season ticket base. In 8 short years, should the '87 goal be met, the O's season ticket sales will have increased more than 700%.

Along with former Mayor Schaefer, the "founding fathers" of the "Designated Hitters" included: Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman; the Orioles' vice-president for business affairs Bob Aylward; executive director of sales and tickets Lou Michaelson, and former club vice-president Al Harazin, now senior vice-president for the New York Mets.

The Orioles "Designated Hitter" coordinator is Vince Dunbar. In addition the "DH's" have their own officers (President-Glenn Babcock) and board of directors, as well as their own by-laws, newsletters, and social programs.

The Orioles season ticket sales figures by year: '79 (last year before DH's)—1,623 . . . '80-4,018 . . . '81-5,215 . . . '82—5,430 . . . '83—6,061 . . . '84-11,738 . . . '85-11,707 . . . '86-11,145.

ANNOUNCERS

REX BARNEY

Rex returns for his 4th season with Home Team Sports. Known as the "Voice of Memorial Stadium" since '70, he will continue to handle the stadium's public address announcing, when it doesn't conflict with his HTS work.

Rex, who also served as the stadium public address announcer for the Baltimore Colts from '69 to '83, has hosted a variety of radio sports shows in Baltimore including his current role as host of the Orioles post-game show.

A former major league pitcher himself, Barney played with the Brooklyn Dodgers for six seasons ('43, '46–'50). He appeared briefly with the Dodgers in '43 before being called into the service for three years of military duty. He returned to the Dodgers in '46 and compiled a career record of 35-31. His best season came in '48, when he won 15 games, including a 2-0 no-hit victory over the New York Giants.

He began his broadcasting career in '52 in New York City. He did Mutual Radio's Game of the Day from '55 to '57, and also broadcast games in the New York area for WOR-TV.

In '82 and '83, he served as color commentator for 16 Orioles' telecasts on subscription television. A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Rex resides just a half-mile from Memorial Stadium.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis will host the HTS pre- and post-game show and provide in-game score updates, duties he has handled the past 2 seasons for HTS. He has handled various on-air assignments for HTS including play-by-play for the Orioles and college basketball, in-studio talk shows, pre-game host of hockey telecasts, coverage of the Washington Redskins, boxing and college football.

The 39-year-old Davis has spent 16 years on the Baltimore sports scene. He has been named "Baltimore Sportscaster of the Year" in '78, '84 and '85. Davis gained national exposure with ABC-TV as a sideline reporter during United States Football League telecasts and with the Mutual Broadcasting System as a sports anchor and college football play-by-play man.

Last fall he also handled play-by-play of several NFL games for NBC-TV as well as NBC and Mutual radio.

A graduate of the University of Baltimore, Davis began his career as a sports reporter at WBAL radio in '71. He later worked as a part-time sports anchor at WJZ-TV and WBAL-TV and can still occasionally be seen on WBAL on weekends. In '75, he began anchoring the sports on WCBM radio and has been there the past 11 years. During his early years at WCBM, Davis handled the play-by-play of Baltimore Colts pre-season games and filled in during a number of regular season games.

He can currently be heard mornings on WCBM. He and his wife, Linda, have two children. They reside in Baltimore.

JOHN LOWENSTEIN

Former Oriole John Lowenstein returns for his 3rd season as color commentator for Home Team Sports. He played his last game for the Orioles on May 4, '85 and later that month began his sportscasting career calling the Orioles games on HTS. His insight and humor are key elements of the telecasts.

Lowenstein's major league career began in '70 with the Cleveland Indians. He remained with Cleveland until '78 when he was traded to the Texas Rangers. After one year at Texas, Lowenstein was sold to Baltimore where he spent seven years with the Orioles.

JON MILLER

Jon Miller starts his 5th season on the Orioles' radio network after 3 years as a radio play-by-play announcer for the Boston Red Sox. His major league baseball experience also includes radio and television with the Texas Rangers in '78 and '79 and with the Oakland A's in '74. He broadcast his first major league game at age 22 with the A's.

During the '86 season, Jon was granted a leave of absence from several Oriole games to call the action for NBC-TV's Saturday afternoon coverage of major league baseball.

Jon has an extensive background in basketball, soccer and hockey during his 15 years in broadcasting. He did 10-15 games a season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors from 1979-82 and prior to that, was the voice of University of San Francisco basketball for 5 years. He has also announced MISL games for the San Jose Earthquakes and did both television and radio for the Washington Diplomats of the North American Soccer League in '77. He's broadcast soccer for the CBS, TVS and Satelcast networks.

A renowned mimic, Jon can be heard to imitate such outstanding baseball announcers as Al Michaels, Vin Scully and Chuck Thompson during breaks in the action (rain delays, etc.). Popular on the banquet circuit in the off-season, Jon attended numerous such functions across the country last winter.

In '86, he was named "Baltimore's Best Radio Sportscaster" by Baltimore Magazine and "Best Play-by-Play Broadcaster' by Washingtonian Magazine.

A native of the San Francisco Bay area, Jon now lives in Cockeysville, MD.

In addition to his work with HTS, he can be heard calling NFL games for NBC television and radio, college football and pro and college basketball for Turner Broadcasting. He also does selected Bullets games for Channel 20 in Washington, D.C. (those not televised by HTS).

Last summer, Mel took a short break from Orioles baseball to handle play-by-play of TBS's coverage of the United States Men's basketball team in the Goodwill Games in Spain.

He began his career as sports director at the CBS-TV affiliate in Hawaii (KGMB) from '73 until '78. While there, he worked the microphone for Hawaii Islanders (AAA) baseball, University of Hawaii football and basketball, and did one season for the Hawaiians of the World Football League.

He came to work in the Nation's Capital for the first time in '78 when he began a five-year stint as play-by-play announcer for Washington Bullets basketball on flagship station, WTOP-AM. During the Bullets' off-seasons, Mel worked in Arlington, Texas as the TV and radio voice of the Texas Rangers. In '82 and '83, he supplemented his work with the Bullets by doing college basketball games for NBC-TV for two seasons.

For two seasons ('83–'84 and '84–'85), Mel served as the play-by-play man for the NBA's New Jersey Nets. At that time, he also began providing the commentary for the NFL "Game of the Week" for the Mutual Broadcasting System.

*Shapiro, Robinson and Associates is a company which provides athletes comprehensive counseling and support in their professional, financial and personal lives.

Nothing is Forever: His 268th and last home run provided one of the most emotional experiences in Orioles' history. It was Apr. 19, '77 at Memorial Stadium, the O's trailed the Indians, 5-2, in the 10th. With one out and runners on 1st and 2nd, Lee May singled in a run. The O's now trailed by 2 as Brooks came to the plate as a pinch-hitter for Larry Harlow. He ran the count to "3 & 2", fouled off a number of pitches, then hit a home run into the left field stands off reliever Dave LaRoche to win the game, 6-5. There were only 4,826 fans at the ballpark that night, but none of them will ever forget the moment.

Signed for '77 as player-coach, but became coach exclusively on Sunday, Aug. 21, when he went on the voluntarily retired list (in Minnesota) to make room on the roster for catcher Rick Dempsey who was returning to duty after 6 weeks on the disabled list.

An Orioles' record regular season crowd of 51,798 attended "Thanks Brooks" Day on Sunday, Sep. 18, '77, against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and beloved Oriole of modern times.

CHUCK THOMPSON

A veteran of 45 years of broadcasting, Chuck Thompson is in his 28th season as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles. At the end of the '82 season, Chuck decided to curtail his broadcast schedule and in '87 he'll team once again with Brooks Robinson to do games on television only.

Chuck began his announcing career in 1939 at WEEU in Reading, PA . . . Three years later he became a staff announcer for WIBG in Philadelphia, where he covered Temple University football.

After seeing combat in three major European campaigns for the U.S. Army in World War II, he returned to Philadelphia to describe the action of the Phillies and A's, Warriors, Eagles and Rockets (ice hockey).

He came to Baltimore in 1949 to do play-by-play for the International League Orioles, the Baltimore Bullets, U.S. Naval Academy football and the Colts in the All-America Conference.

In 1955, Chuck joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during 24 years of that association did American League Orioles baseball for 19 years ('55–'56 and '62 thru '78), Colts football, Washington Senators baseball ('57–'61) and the NBC-TV "Game of the Week" ('59–'60).

He has been named the outstanding sportscaster in Maryland by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association on numerous occasions. A golfing and fishing enthusiast, Chuck has 3 children and 5 grandchildren. He resides in Timonium.

JACK WIERS

A newcomer to Baltimore, Jack Wiers begins his first year on the Orioles' radio broadcast team. With 14 years of experience in radio and television behind him, Jack comes to the Orioles from KKUA radio in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he had been the voice of the Hawaii Islanders, the Pittsburgh Pirates' affiliate in the Pacific Coast League (AAA), for the past three years.

In addition to his work with the Islanders, he had also served as the sports anchor and executive sports producer at KHON-TV in Honolulu since 1981.

He began his broadcasting career in '73 as the radio/tv voice of the baseball, football and basketball teams at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, before graduating in '75 (three years after Oriole outfielder Jim Dwyer).

In the six years that followed before he left the mainland for Hawaii, Jack had stints as television sports anchor at WTWO-TV in Terre Haute, Indiana, WOC-TV in Davenport, Iowa and WQAD-TV in Moline, Illinois. While at WQAD, he won Associated Press awards for Illinois' "Best TV Sportscasting" and "Best TV News Feature" in '81 and "Best TV Sports Reporting" in '80.

He has done color commentary on Big Ten basketball telecasts as well as work for the University of Iowa Football Network.

Jack and his wife, Melinda, have been married seven years.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSER VS. O's

WINNERS: Though he has been retired for 20 years ('67), Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else. He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford was one of 11 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 33 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-21), Jim Perry (20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23).

Among currently active pitchers, the biggest winners against the O's are: Bert Blyleven and Frank Tanana (both 16-11) followed by Tommy John (15-16).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore (26), is also the biggest lifetime loser (24) . . . At one time "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's, but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Kaat (21) . . . Other big losers were Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19) . . . From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Geoff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Among actives, John is the biggest loser (16). Jim Slaton (11-13), assuming he pitches in the A.L. in '87, is next followed by Beattie, Blyleven, and Tanana (11 each).

MANAGER AND COACHES
CALVIN (CAL) EDWIN RIPKEN 7

Born: Dec. 17, 1935
Height: 5'11"; Weight: 170
Batted, R; Threw, R
Position: Catcher

Birthplace/Residence: Born, grew up, and still lives in Aberdeen, MD.

Tenure: This is his 31st season in professional baseball (all with Baltimore organization).

Signed Originally with: Orioles.

ORIOLES MANAGERS: Cal becomes only the 8th (the 7th non-interim) manager in the club's 34 year history. (Luman Harris who finished out the '61 season after Paul Richards resigned in late August, and Cal himself who bridged the gap for one game between Joe Altobelli and Earl Weaver in '85 were both interim skippers.)

ORIOLES MANAGERS WON-LOST RECORDS

Joe Altobelli (212-167, .559)	Billy Hitchcock (163-161, .503)
Hank Bauer (407-318, .561)	Paul Richards (517-539, .490)
Jimmie Dykes (54-100, .351)	Cal Ripken Sr. (1-0, 1.000)
Luman Harris (17-10, .630)	Earl Weaver (1480-1060, .583)

FATHER & SONS: The Orioles 1987 spring training camp will feature 3 members of the same family in uniform, a rarity matched, perhaps, only once in baseball history. That would have been 1963 when all 3 of the baseball playing Alou brothers (Felipe, Matty and Jesus) all trained with the Giants, and, in fact, played for San Francisco that season.

To the best of our knowledge, this will be the first time a major league manager has had two of his own sons in camp the same year. Last spring the trio suited up for the same split squad exhibition game (at Ft. Myers) March 15 against the Royals when Billy was called up temporarily from the O's minor league camp.

Cal Junior was a 2nd round pick in the June '78 draft while younger son, Billy, was chosen on the 11th round in June '82.

Cal Sr. & Cal Jr. have been teammates in spring training as well as in regular season for the last 6 years (starting '81) . . . There have been other such father-son relationships:

Connie (manager) and Earle (player) Mack (McGillicuddy), Philadelphia A's ('10, 11, '14). For many years after that, Earle served as a coach for his father.

Jim (coach) and Mike (player) Hegan, New York Yankees ('64, '66, '67, '73).

Yogi (manager) and Dale (player) Berra, New York Yankees ('84, '85).

This year, perhaps, Hal McRae and his son, Brian, will both play for the same team (K.C. Royals), a first in baseball history as far as we know.

COACH: Cal spent 11 years on the O's coaching staff, the last 9-1/2 as 3rd base coach . . . He joined the staff in '76, replacing George Staller who had retired at the end of the previous season. Cal served as bullpen coach until June 27, '77 when he took over as 3rd base coach after Billy Hunter became manager of the Texas Rangers.

Cal was ejected 16 times during his 9-1/2 years tenure as 3rd base coach, including 4 times last year.

MANAGING: He managed for 13 plus seasons in the Orioles' farm system, '61–'74, which represents the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles history . . . Earl Weaver and Joe Altobelli are tied for 2nd, having managed 11 years each in the Birds' farm system . . . During that span, Cal managed at all levels except "rookie" league.

In 2 seasons as a player-manager he had a losing record both times, but, after retiring as a player following '62, Cal finished below .500 only once in 12 tries.

He won the 1st of 2 pennants at Aberdeen, SD by 12 games in '64 with a club that included 7 players who would ultimately play in the majors: Jim Palmer, Lou Piniella, Mark Belanger, Andy Etchebarren, Eddie Watt, Dave Leonhard and Mike Fiore.

That '64 club went 81-34 and Cal was the Northern League's "manager of the year" . . . Cal's Orioles 3rd base coach, Jimmy Williams, managed at Grand Forks, ND in the same league for the Dodgers that year.

He finished 1st again in '72 at Asheville in the AA Southern League. Preceded Joe Altobelli at Rochester in '69 & '70.

SCOUT: In '75, he turned to scouting, primarily at the professional level, but he also did some free agent scouting and served as a "trouble shooter" in the farm system.

PLAYING CAREER: Rip was a catcher in the O's organization although he also played some 3rd base and outfield and even pitched. He enjoyed his best year under Earl Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60. He became a player manager the following year.

PERSONAL: Conducts clinics in off-season and has also been involved with the Cal Ripken Baseball School at Mt. St. Mary's College (Emmitsburg, MD) in recent summers.

His brother, Bill, played the outfield in the Brooklyn Dodgers organization. Cal and his wife, Vi, were married on Nov. 30, '57 . . . They have 4 children: Ellen Leigh (3/22/59), Calvin Jr. (8/24/60), Fred (11/25/61), and Billy (12/16/64).

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER: When he first joined the O's in '68, Ellie had spent nine seasons in the minors . . . During the 20 years that have elapsed since then, he has been with Baltimore for nearly 17-1/2.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning to the O's that winter, then logged 1-1/2 years in the Yankees organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Birds.

COACH: Ellie was appointed bullpen coach in Nov. '77 . . . He also served as a player-coach for parts of the '78 and '79 seasons and has supervised the off-season workouts the last 8 winters for players living in the Baltimore area.

He was the American League's batting practice catcher and bullpen coach for the '82 all-star game in Montreal.

'79 SEASON: He coached exclusively all year until Sep. 1 when the roster expanded to 40 men . . . He made only one appearance, in a game at Detroit on Sep. 19 and went 0-for-1 with a throwing error behind the plate . . . He was not eligible for post-season play.

'78 SEASON: He started the season as a coach, but was activated on May 18 replacing Gary Roenicke who was optioned to Rochester. Ellie remained on the player list for the remainder of the year while also continuing as coach.

LAST HOME RUN: Ellie hit his last big league home run on Aug. 23, '78 off Oakland's Dave Heaverlo.

'78 BATTING/ERA LEADER: In 13 games Ellie batted .333 (18-6) and in his one career pitching stint he compiled a 0.00 era, thus leading the club in both categories (actually he tied Dave Ford in era . . . Ford pitched 15 scoreless innings in Sep.)

His pitching career took place in Toronto on June 26 where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting by the Blue Jays . . . Ellie worked 2.1 innings, allowing no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage that had been inflicted on four predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez and outfielder Larry Harlow) . . . Don Stanhouse then pitched the final inning and, inspired by Ellie's effort, he too, held the Blue Jays scoreless.

YANKEES '76–'77: In '76, Ellie played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (57-12).

Ellie spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

ORIOLES '68–'76: Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72 . . . However when the season ended, he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 Games/Year: Ellie played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69–'70–'71 . . . He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67 . . . Ellie had played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 (66-18) average in 23 postseason games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five league championship series and four World Series).

'70 WS: Ellie hit .364 (11-4) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in games #1 and #2.

In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0, but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks' homer in the 7th . . . There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved and that was as important as the home run . . . See "Carbo-Burkhart Incident" below.

"Carbo-Burkhart" Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate . . . As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home, Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the runners as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out.

Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

PUERTO RICO: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rican Winter League each year from '60–'77, except in '71 when the O's went to Japan . . . His 112 homers in that loop rank him 2nd on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

MINORS: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the "Babe Ruth of Mexico" . . . In last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was 2nd in rbi (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59–'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals' system ('62–'63) before going to Mexico.

PERSONAL: Ellie is one of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform . . . He is an accomplished after dinner speaker and is very active in community projects in the Baltimore area . . . Speaks fluent Spanish . . . Plays the flute.

He has managed the Cleveland Indians ('75–'77), Rochester Red Wings ('78) and San Francisco Giants ('81–'84), as well as the Santurce Crabbers in the Puerto Rican League for 8 winters and the Culiacan club in the Mexican Pacific Winter League ('77–'78).

Made a dramatic debut as playing manager on Apr. 8, '75, before some 55,000 opening day fans at Cleveland Stadium. In his 1st at bat of that 1st game (he was dh, batting 2nd), Frank homered off Doc Medich (Boog Powell later homered in the same half-inning).

The Indians went on to win, 5-3 and that effort was voted "most memorable moment" in Tribe history by fans during baseball's observance of the U.S. Bicentennial celebration.

In that 1st year, the Indians fell to 15 games below .500 by late June, but rallied and wound up 4th, just one game under . . . The next year, '76, they were 3 over. However, after a slow start in '77, Frank was released and succeeded by Jeff Torborg.

Frank became a big league coach for the 1st time after the Indians let him go as manager in '77. He joined Dave Garcia who had been his 3rd base coach at Cleveland ('75–'76) and was then managing the Angels.

He returned to Baltimore and coached for the O's for part of '78 and all of '79 and '80. During that period, he was responsible for vastly improving the quality of the O's outfield defense, and in '80 replaced Jim Frey (who left to manage the K.C. Royals) as the O's batting and 1st base coach.

After being released by the Giants in '84, he served the Milwaukee Brewers as batting coach.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS: Was named manager Jan. 14, '81 replacing Dave Bristol (who had in turn replaced Joe Altobelli) and led the club to its first winning seasons since Altobelli did it in '78 and the first back-to-back winning seasons in a decade ('81 & '82) . . . After finishing 3rd in '82, the Giants dipped below .500 in '83 and '84 and on Aug. 4, '84, Frank was dismissed in favor of Danny Ozark who was named interim skipper.

During his tenure with the Giants, two former O's served on his coaching staff—Don Buford and Herm Starrette.

ROCHESTER '78: Started the season as an O's coach, but after the late Ken Boyer was named manager of the St. Louis Cardinals (Apr. 28), Frank replaced him (May 9) at the Red Wings' helm.

He was 58-64 at Rochester which finished 6th. Doc Edwards was hired to manage the Wings in '79, and Frank returned to the O's as a coach, helping the O's to an A.L. pennant.

CLEVELAND '75–'76–'77: Joined the Indians as a player on Sep. 12, '74 from California in trade that ultimately sent Rusty Torres and Ken Suarez to the Angels . . . Then 3 weeks later, on Oct. 4, the day after that season ended, he was named the first black major league manager in baseball history, replacing Ken Aspromonte.

PLAYING CAREER

MAJOR LEAGUE LEADER: He played for 21 seasons in the majors and is among the top ranking players of all time in 10 categories.

TRIPLE CROWN: Is one of only 11 players to have won the "Triple Crown" (accomplished 13 times, 2 each by Ted Williams and Rogers Hornsby) . . . Frank did it in '66 with the O's. He, Mantle ('56) and Carl Yastrzemski ('67) are the only Triple Crown winners in the past 39 years (since Williams' second in '47).

Among those, Crosley Field in Cincinnati (176) and Memorial Stadium (103) rank one-two in frequency . . . There were four stadia in which he played but did not hit a home run: Houston's Astrodome, Montreal's Expos Stadium, Sicks' Stadium in Seattle ('69 only) and Busch Stadium in St. Louis.

In regular season play Frank homered in 32 parks. His 33rd was Pittsburgh's Three Rivers in the '71 World Series . . . Aaron homered in 31 parks in regular season but added Yankee Stadium in the '57 World Series.

GRAND SLAMS: Hit a total of seven slams, five of them in the N.L. . . . His only two bases loaded homers in the A.L. were hit in successive innings on Aug. 20, '70 at R.F.K. Stadium in Washington off Senators' Joe Coleman and Joe Grzenda . . . Frank, Jim Gentile and Jim Northrup are the only ones ever to hit slams in successive plate appearances, though a total of seven have hit 2 in one game.

2 OR MORE/GAME: Hit two or more homers in a game 54 times (ranks 5th in major league history) . . . Hit three in a game for Reds at Crosley Field vs. St. Louis on Aug. 22, '59 . . . Had 16 two-homer games for O's.

HRS-ORIOLES: Hit his 500th major league homer in Baltimore in the 2nd game of a twi-night doubleheader against the Tigers' lefthander Fred Scherman Sep. 13, '71. At the time, he ranked 11th on the all-time list just behind Harmon Killebrew who had reached that milestone earlier that year . . . After leaving Baltimore, Frank jumped past Killebrew, Mel Ott, Ernie Banks, Eddie Mathews, Ted Williams, Jimmy Foxx and Mickey Mantle.

Frank became the first (and only) player ever to hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium on May 8, '66 (second game) when he blasted a Luis Tiant (Cleveland) offering over the left field stands into the parking lot beyond . . . The drive measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 540' away from the plate (the longest measured home run in Memorial Stadium history was hit by Killebrew 471' on the fly to center off Milt Pappas on May 24, '65).

He set a major league record by hitting ten home runs in the month of April '69, but that mark has since been pushed to 11 by Willie Stargel, Mike Schmidt and Graig Nettles.

Set a club record with 49 homers in '66 . . . Also set marks that year for most homers by an Oriole against one opponent (11 vs. Det.) and most home runs, Memorial Stadium (27).

Hit .250 (24-6) in all-star play with two home runs . . . Went 3-for-3 for the N.L. in '59 (at L.A. Coliseum) and homered off Early Wynn.

O's won the game 5-2 . . . In game #4 his 4th inning inning solo provided the only run as the O's completed their sweep behind Dave McNally.

In '71, game #6 vs. Pittsburgh in Baltimore, Frank's base running in the 10th inning allowed the O's to tie the series at three games apiece . . . He drew a one out walk, and despite ailing legs and sore Achilles Tendon, went from first to third on Merv Rettenmund's single up the middle just evading Richie Hebner's tag with a head first slide . . . Set personal career highs in '62 in average (.342), hits (208), doubles (51) and rbi (136) . . . Set N.L. record by leading in hit by pitcher for six straight years ('60 thru '65).

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM

The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471' drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left-center field. . . . This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge. . . . That was one by Boog Powell 469' to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962. Aside from these there have been three balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450'), by Mickey Mantle in 1954, by Powell in 1965 and by Frank Robinson in 1967.

Frank Robinson is the only player to have hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on May 8, 1966, Frank hit a Luis Tiant offering over the left field stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 541' away from home plate.

Though he wound up with a .311 average that year, he slipped to .268 (with 15 homers and 52 rbi) in '68 while still recovering from that injury, compounded by an attack of mumps and a muscle tear in his right shoulder.

He returned to form the following spring and helped lead the O's to three straight pennants in '69, '70 and '71.

Following his trade to the Dodgers in Dec. '71, Frank's uniform #20 was retired. He was the first Oriole player to be so honored . . . In '77, he and Brooks became the first players to be inducted into the new Orioles Hall of Fame, originated by the Oriole Advocates in cooperation with the ballclub.

DODGERS-ANGELS: After one year ('72) with the Dodgers, Frank was traded to the Angels with infielders Billy Grabarkewitz and Bobby Valentine and pitchers Bill Singer and Mike Strahler in deal for infielder Ken McMullen and Andy Messersmith. (Dec. 2, '71).

BALTIMORE ORGANIZATION: Jimmy became a manager in the O's farm system in '78 and guided clubs to the playoffs in each of his three seasons, including a pair of league championships.

In '80, he led the O's class AA team at Charlotte to the Southern League crown . . . The O's won the Eastern Division first half before rebounding in the playoffs to beat Savannah, three games to none, and Memphis, three games to one, for the title. In '79, Charlotte also won the first half title but was eliminated by Columbus, GA in the first round of the playoffs.

The previous year, his first with the Orioles, Jimmy directed class A Miami of the Florida State League to the second half championship, knocked off Fort Myers in a one-game divisional playoff, then erased the Lakeland Tigers in a best-of-three final to win the pennant.

MANAGING/COACHING BACKGROUND: Jimmy has logged 17 years as a minor league manager in the farm systems of the Dodgers ('63, '64, '76–'77), A's ('65 thru '69), Astros ('70 thru '74) and Orioles and owns over 1100 wins . . . He also spent the '75 season as the third base coach for the Houston Astros on the major league level.

His first four pennants came in the Florida State League when he managed for A's at Leesburg in '66 . . . That year his club was 50-14 in the first half, fell to fifth in the 2nd half, but came back to beat St. Petersburg in the FSL playoffs . . . That club led organized baseball with 232 stolen bases in 132 games, a FSL record that still stands, while Allen Lewis, who went on to become Charlie Finley's "designated runner" stole 116, also a league mark . . . Jimmy also managed at Leesburg in '67 and put in another FSL campaign with Astros at Cocoa in '72.

Jimmy joined the Houston organization in '70 and won a pennant at Columbus in the Southern League (he also managed Columbus in '74) . . . He has managed at every level but "rookie" including four years at AAA: '69 (Des Moines), '71 (Oklahoma City); '73 (Denver), all in the American Association and '77 (Albuquerque) of the Pacific Coast League.

He has also managed in: Santa Barbara ('63, California), Grand Forks ('64, Northern), Shelby ('65, Western Carolinas), Newport News ('68, Carolina) and Lodi ('76, California) . . . Served as a player-coach at Omaha (American Association) in '62.

PLAYING CAREER: He played for 18 years ('47 thru '64) as an outfielder in the Dodgers' system including occasional appearances in his first two years as a manager . . . He was outstanding in his first professional season in '47, earning "rookie of the year" honors in the Wisconsin State League and batting a composite .367 with three different clubs . . . That year he amassed 163 hits, 27 doubles, 15 triples, 12 homers, 121 rbi and 24 stolen bases in 117 games.

In '49 at Pueblo, he broke a Western League record with 42 stolen bases (in 43 attempts) . . . That mark was later broken by current Orioles scout and field coordinator by Len Johnston who swiped 64 at Colorado Springs in '53.

Jimmy never played in the majors but put in five seasons at the AAA level ('55 thru '57 at Montreal in the International League) and '59 and '62 in the American Association . . . Hit over .300 in five different seasons.

PERSONAL: Jimmy graduated from DeLaSalle High School in Toronto where he lettered in baseball, hockey, football and lacrosse . . . He played minor league hockey (right wing) for the old Boston Olympics in the early 1950's and even played 2 winters ago in an amateur hockey league in Baltimore . . . During the past off-season he assisted with coaching in a Baltimore area youth hockey league . . . His other hobbies include golf, tennis and remodeling homes.

On Feb. 3, '87, Jimmy was inducted into the Charlotte (NC) Hall of Fame . . . He is the father of two sons, Chris (6/10/52) and Kirk (11/11/56) and daughter, Julie (2/19/61).

The Birds in turn acquired the contracts of: pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

1986 SEASON SUMMARY

Made his return from '82 arm surgery complete with best relief season in O's history . . . Earned a club record 34 saves, breaking mark of 26 set by Tim Stoddard in '80 . . . Was 2nd in the A.L. behind N.Y.'s Dave Righetti (46) and 4th in the majors behind Righetti, St. Louis' Todd Worrell (36) and Montreal's Jeff Reardon (35).

Was 3rd in the A.L. and 5th in the majors in games finished with 58 in 66 appearances . . . Trailed Righetti (68), Texas' Greg Harris (63), Worrell (60), and Lee Smith (59) of the Chi. Cubs.

Was landslide winner of '86 "most valuable Oriole" award . . . His 34 saves were most ever by a pitcher for a last place club breaking mark held by Ken Sanders of Milwaukee (31) in '71 . . . Had a save or win in 40 of O's 73 wins (55%).

Earned save in A.L.'s 3-2 victory in the all-star game at the Astrodome meaning an Oriole pitcher has saved 4 of the last 6 A.L. wins beginning '58 (see below under "All-Star Game").

Named A.L. "pitcher of the month" in May (1-0, 9 svs, 0.69, IP-13, ER-1) while O's enjoyed their best month (18-8).

Had a stretch of 19 games between Apr. 30 and June 15 where he allowed only one run (earned) in 23.2 innings (0.38) while gaining 14 saves and a win . . . That span gave him a 2-2 record with 18 saves and a season-low 0.83 era (IP-32.2, ER-3).

Broke Oriole record for saves with his 27th on July 28, but had only 7 the rest of the season.

Thru Aug. 2, was 4-3 with major league-leading 28 saves (in 33 opportunities) and a 2.02 era (IP-58, H-45, R-15, ER-13, BB-20, SO-52) in 46 games . . . Suffered strained back and was unable to pitch from Aug. 3-9 . . . In final 20 appearances beginning Aug. 10 was 2-4 with 6 saves (in 10 opp's) and a 5.32 era (IP-23.2, H-26, R/ER-14, BB-8, SO-15).

ALL-STAR GAME: A.L. manager Dick Howser called on him to protect a one-run lead in the 9th inning with one out and runners on 1st and 3rd. Aase induced San Francisco's Chris Brown to hit into a game-ending double play as A.L. held on for a 3-2 win at the Astrodome on July 15 . . . While the A.L.'s win was only their 6th in the last 33 games (beginning '58), it has been Oriole relievers who have saved 4 of those victories: Billy O'Dell ('58, '59), Milt Pappas ('62) and Aase.

2 LOSSES IN ONE DAY: Became the 1st Oriole to ever lose 2 games in one day when he lost both games of a doubleheader at Oakland, Aug. 28 . . . Both losses were in "sudden death" . . . Was beaten, 5-4, on a 2-out, 2-run homer by Dave Kingman in the 9th inning of the first game and 8-7 on a 2-out, 2-run triple by Carney Lansford in the 9th inning of the 2nd game . . . Wes Stock is the only Oriole to win 2 games in one day (May 26, '63 at Cleveland).

SAVES FOR: Mike Boddicker-8 . . . Ken Dixon-6 . . . Storm Davis-5 . . . Mike Flanagan & Scott McGregor-4 . . . Brad Havens & Rich Bordi-2 . . . Nate Snell, Eric Bell & John Habyan-1.

LONGEST OUTING: Of his 66 appearances, 61 were 2 innings or less and only once did he work more than 2.2 innings (went 3 innings on Aug. 13 in 13-inning 7-6 win vs. Toronto).

His longest stretch since returning from '82 arm surgery (see below under "Arm Injury/Recovery") is 4.1 innings for California at K.C. on Sep. 25, '84.

ROLAIDS: Finished 2nd in the A.L. Rolaids Relief Man Competition with 73 points (+2 for win/save, −1 for loss) trailing N.Y.'s Dave Righetti (100).

ORIOLES ALL-TIME: In addition to club record for saves, also established Oriole record for most relief points (wins + saves) with 40, bettering old mark set by Stu Miller (38) in '65 . . . In just 2 seasons has moved into 6th place on O's all-time save list with 48.

The system was initiated 5 years ago and, in essence, rewards relievers for saves (+2), wins (+2), and holds (+1) while penalizing them for losses (−2) and squanders (−1).

A pitcher can be awarded a win and a hold in the same game and can be charged with a loss and a squander in the same appearance, but can accumulate no more than 3 points (positive or negative) in one outing.

1986 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

ARM INJURY/RECOVERY: Went on disabled list June 3, '82 with "muscular strain", but was re-instated June 26 . . . On July 17, however, he came out of a game in Cleveland with a right arm that felt "like it was on fire from the elbow down".

On Oct. 18, Dr. Lewis Yocum performed surgery which included transplantation of a tendon from his left wrist to his right elbow . . . Did not pick up a baseball for next 9 months, then embarked on a long and gradual program in which he ultimately began throwing on the side and eventually worked up to 3/4 speed . . . However, he did not pitch competitively again until spring training of '84.

When he pitched on June 18, '84 vs. the Rangers at Anaheim, it was his 1st major league regular season game in one year, 11 months . . . He started the season on the DL, then went to Redwood in the California League May 10 for "injury rehabilitation" . . . Returned to Angels May 30 and was activated June 13.

Did not allow a run in his 1st 4 appearances . . . Never pitched 2 days in a row during that '84 season . . . Worked his longest stint (4.1 innings) on his last appearance of year (Sep. 25 at K.C.).

Had one other major injury earlier in his career . . . Developed tendinitis in right elbow while still in minors during '75 season . . . Condition worsened in '76 (scrubbing Red Sox plan to promote him) and he did not pitch over the last 2 months.

RELIEVING/STARTING: Was a starting pitcher originally and continued in that role during his 1st and 2nd seasons in the majors . . . Began relieving 2nd half of '79 season for Angels, but returned to starting rotation the following spring.

Became exclusively a relief pitcher on Aug. 3, '80 (has not started since) . . . As a starter his career figures are: 30-32, with a 4.25 era (IP-559, ER-264) over 91 games. In relief he has appeared in 234 games, gone 31-22 (.585) with 75 saves and a 3.03 era (IP-398, ER-134).

Was 1-0 vs. K.C. and is now 7-0 lifetime vs. the Royals, the only club against whom he is undefeated . . . See Individual Pitching vs. Each Opponent (page 64) . . . See also "Vs. Opponent" section (pages 36–50).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1985: Led O's in saves (14) and games (54) . . . Converted 14 of 19 save opportunities . . . Struggled thru 1st 2 months . . . On June 9 gave up 7 hits & 7 runs while retiring only 2 batters in 9th inning against Boston . . . To that point he had a 6.83 era (IP-55.2, ER-11).

For the next 3-1/2 months, from June 12 thru Sep. 29, turned it completely around . . . In that span, he was 5-3 with 12 saves in 34 appearances and maintained a 1.78 era (IP-55.2, ER-11).

CALIFORNIA ANGELS: Was first Orange County native ever to play for Angels.

In '84, was one of only 3 A.L. hurlers to beat Tigers' Cy Young Award winner Willie Hernandez . . . Suffered only loss to Boston's Bob Stanley . . . Won his last 4 decisions.

In '82, before he was beset by elbow injury, jumped off to a 3-1 record with 2 saves and a 0.67 era (IP-27, ER-2) in 10 games . . . Despite the abbreviated '81 season, earned 11 saves, then a career-high, in his first full season as a reliever.

In both '79 and '80 he opened the season as a starter and moved to the bullpen in the 2nd half . . . Was 8-9 as a starter in '79 and only modestly successful in relief (1-1, 1 sv, 6.30 era).

In '80, however, after going 5-13 with a 4.90 era as a starter, he was 3-0 with 2 saves and an era of 2.08 in 19 relief appearances . . . That success triggered his permanent assignment to the bullpen.

Was Angels' lone winner in '79 ALCS vs. O's . . . Beat Don Stanhouse in game #3 at Anaheim . . . Held O's to one run in last 4 innings, but was behind 3-2 until Angels ralled for 2 runs in the bottom of the 9th.

In '78, his 1st full year with California, was 8-8 thru Aug., then went 3-0 in Sep . . . That effort gave him 6-1 Sep.–Oct. record after less than 2 full seasons in the majors.

BOSTON RED SOX: Was called up to the Red Sox July 26, '77 (from Pawtucket) in the midst of a pennant race and went 6-2 the rest of the way, all as a starter.

His first 2 big league efforts were highly notable . . . In his debut, the day he was promoted to the Carmines, he fanned 11 Brewers (still a career high) enroute to a 4-3 complete game win . . . The next time out, July 31, he pitched a 3-hit 1-0 shutout against the Angels in his native Orange County.

MINOR LEAGUE: Signed by Red Sox scout Joe Stephenson at age of 17 . . . In his 1st 2 pro seasons, led his league both times in losses: 0-10 in '72 New York-Penn League, and 12-15 in Florida State League the following year . . . Was 12-25 after 2 pro campaigns.

That all changed dramatically in '74 at Winston-Salem where he was the Carolina League's "pitcher of the year" while leading the loop in wins (17), era (2.43) starts (30), complete games (18) and innings (230).

By '76, the Red Sox expected to bring him up to the big club in mid-season, but arm trouble set in, delaying his promotion until '77.

AMATEUR CAREER: Graduated from Savanna High School in Anaheim . . . Gives his coach, Jim Reach (who also tutored Al Hrabosky) much credit for his early development . . . Played Litte League, Colt League and American Legion Baseball.

PERSONAL: Married the former Judy Becker Jan. 10, '81 . . . They have 2 children: Kyle (1/16/82) and Amber Kallie (12/18/85) . . . Likes to duck hunt in the off-season.

1986 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

AMONG M.L. LEADERS OVER LAST 10 YEARS: Despite going 11-16 in 43 starts over the past 2 seasons combined, his totals for wins, starts and innings over the past 10 years (since he joined the O's rotation in '77) are among the major league leaders during that span.

Ranks 8th in the majors in wins (133) and starts (300) over the last 10 years and 13th in innings pitched (1995.1) . . . The leaders over that span are Ron Guidry with 163 wins and Phil Niekro with 353 starts and 2502.2 innings.

VS. OPPONENTS: See Individual Pitching vs. Each Opponent (page 65) . . . See also Vs. Chicago (page 39), Vs. Minnesota (page 43), Vs. New York (page 44), Vs. Oakland (page 46), Vs. Toronto (page 49).

INJURIES: Has been on the disabled list in three of the last 4 seasons and has missed approximately 28 weeks . . . In '85, tore left Achilles tendon while playing in charity basketball game on Jan. 23 . . . On May 17, '83 sustained ligament damage to left knee while fielding a ground ball in the first inning vs. Chicago . . . Twisted knee after catching spikes in the ground . . . Did not require surgery, but missed 11-1/2 weeks . . . Continued to wear brace on knee while pitching until discarding it on May 20, '84.

Was disabled 3 different times and was on the active roster for only 53 games all season . . . Spent the entire 2nd half on the disabled list with a sore left shoulder. It was the 3rd straight year he has been bothered by pain in that area. Last appearance was July 13 at Chicago in O's 7-0 loss.

First went on the list Apr. 25 after suffering from dizziness and a loss of balance, a condition that originally occurred while he was on the mound against Texas at home on Apr. 19 . . . A battery of tests revealed an inner ear infection.

Returned to active duty May 28 and made 8 appearances (including his lone save of '86 on June 8 in O's 18-9 win at N.Y.) before going on dl again on June 27 with what was later diagnosed as a deterioration of the rotator cuff.

Re-activated July 4, but made only 2 appearances before returning to dl for 3rd time with re-occurring soreness in shoulder.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

AMONG ACTIVE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: Despite making only 63 appearances with 3 wins and 5 saves over the past 2 seasons, Tippy ranks among the active major league relief pitchers in: saves (115, 14th behind leader Bruce Sutter-286); relief wins (55, 13th behind leader Goose Gossage-92) and relief appearances (541, 10th behind leader Kent Tekulve-853).

ORIOLES ONLY: Since the Yankees traded him to the O's in June '76, Tippy has gone 52-40 (.565) with 105 saves, compiled a 3.45 era (IP-753, H-665, ER-289), walked 366 and fanned 574.

LIFETIME SAVES FOR (O'S ONLY): 15-Mike Flanagan & Dennis Martinez . . . 14-Scott McGregor . . . 11-Jim Palmer . . . 10-Mike Boddicker . . . 8-Storm Davis . . . 6-Steve Stone . . . 5-Rudy May & Sammy Stewart . . . 4-Ross Grimsley . . . 2-Dave Ford & Bill Swaggerty . . . 1-Don Aase, Ken Dixon, Dick Drago, John Flinn, Joe Kerrigan, Dyar Miller, Dave Pagan and Allan Ramirez.

BY-MONTH, LIFETIME (W-L-S, G): Apr. (4-9-9, 67) . . . May (9-7-22, 90) June (12-6-19, 97) . . . July (11-5-25, 84) . . . Aug. (10-8-14, 103) . . . Sep.–Oct. (9-7-26, 102).

STARTS: He has started only 2 games in 543 major league appearances, both losing efforts for the Yankees in '75: to Boston July 27 and to California Aug. 24.

SUDDEN DEATH: Has won 33 games lifetime at Memorial Stadium, 18 of them in "sudden death" . . . Has lost only 4 on the road in "sudden death".

VS. YANKEES: Though he has no wins and only one save against the Yankees over the past 2 seasons, still has more wins (9), losses (6), saves

(17), appearances (64) and innings (94.2) against the club with which he both signed originally and broke into the majors . . . His career era vs. N.Y. is 2.56 (ER-27).

During a 3-season stretch (between losses to the Bombers on June 23, '81 and June 23, '84), Tippy went undefeated while winning 3 and saving 11 over 22 appearances during which his era was a nifty 0.49 (IP-36.2, ER-2).

He also went 19 games in a row without allowing the Yankees an earned run (spanning 30.2 innings) . . . It began when he gave up a run on Sep. 26, '81. He did not yield another to them until June 22, '84.

GOPHER BALLS: Has given up only 52 home run balls in 831 innings, one every 16 innings . . . Although he has yielded 28 in the last 4 seasons covering 263 innings (1 every 9 innings), he was extremely stingy in prior years: '74-0; '75-2; '76-1; '77-2; '78-4; '79-0; '80-5; '81-4; '82-6.

Has thrown 12 "gophers" to the Tigers lifetime, but only one to the Twins (Tom Brunansky-7/4/84 at HHH) and to the A's (Wayne Gross-5/8/83 at Bal.)

In his limited work in '86, he gave up only one homer, to Texas rookie Pete Incaviglia, his 1st as a pro.

Tippy had never given up 2 homers in a game until Apr. 9, '83 when he yielded his only grand slam, to George Vukovich, at Cleveland Stadium, then gave up a back-to-back solo blast to Julio Franco . . . He has since yielded 2 homers in same game 2 additional times (both in '84).

He once had a string of 65 straight homerless appearances (IP-123.2) over nearly 2 full years, between May 23, '78 and April 19, '80 when the White Sox' Marv Foley broke the string (a 12th inning game-winner in Baltimore) . . . He also went 55 games without serving up a home run ball from May 20, '76 to July 26, '77.

POST-SEASON: Has a 1.74 post-season era in 8 appearances (IP-10.1, ER-2) . . . Was 1-0 with 2 saves in '83 over 5 games and allowed only one earned run in 9 innings.

His victory in game #4 of the ALCS at Chicago was at the expense of Brit Burns and was made possible by Tito Landrum's 10th inning homer (O's later scored 2 more runs, and won 3-0) . . . Tippy is thus one of only 3 Orioles pitchers to have clinched a pennant. The others: Jim Palmer (4) and Scott McGregor (1, '79).

He also saved games #3 and #4 of the '83 World Series, both at Philadelphia . . . In '79, he didn't pitch in the ALCS, but did relieve in 3 WS games (2, 5, 7).

PICKOFFS: Though Tippy has not been a major pickoff specialist (like Mike Flanagan and Scott McGregor) during his big league career, he will long be remembered for picking 3 Toronto runners (Barry Bonnell, Dave Collins, and Willie Upshaw) in the 10th inning on Aug. 24, '83 in Baltimore. To that time he had not picked off a runner since June 29, '77.

That classic was chosen in '85 by Orioles fans as one of the top 5 most memorable Orioles games ever, in a contest run by the Babe Ruth Museum . . . The O's battled from behind to win for Tippy on a home run by Lenn Sakata who was making his 1st and only major league appearance as a catcher . . . See details under vs. Toronto (page 49).

1985: Failed to lead the O's in saves for the 1st time in 5 years . . . Though he was never on the disabled list, he did suffer from time to time with a sore shoulder as he tried to snap back from shoulder problems that had sidelined him in September of the previous year.

1984: Bothered much of the season with troubled left shoulder, but still led club in saves (17) for the 4th straight year . . . Appeared in only one game after Sep. 8 and because of his injury did not accompany the O's to Japan in October.

On June 22, thru his 1st 29 appearances, he was 3-4 with 10 saves, a 3.26 era and had given up only 2 homers . . . After that he was 1-5 with 7 saves and a 4.64 era and threw 7 "gopher balls" . . . Was tied for 2nd in A.L. with 13 wild pitches behind Jack Morris (14).

Was 0-3 with 2 saves and a 7.89 era (IP-14.2, H-17, ER-13) thru May 8 . . . In 64 appearances thereafter, he was 8-5 with 14 saves and a 2.58 era (IP-80.1, H-64, ER-23).

Saved both ends of a doubleheader vs. the Yankees on Sep. 14. Tippy saved another against N.Y. the following day, giving him 3 in a row.

Experienced the best month of his career in July during which he did not allow a run in 16 appearances totaling 19 innings while surrendering only 6 hits plus 3 walks and striking out 22 . . . In that span he was 2-0 with 5 saves and 7 "holds" and was voted A.L. "player of the month".

During the week of July 19–25, was 1-0 with 2 saves while pitching 9 scoreless innings in 6 games to earn a share of A.L. "player of the week" honors with Robin Yount.

1981: Was 2-2 with 9 saves in 21 games before the strike, but only 1-1 with 2 saves in 16 2nd half appearances . . . Didn't allow a run in a stretch of 12 games spanning 15.2 innings from Apr. 27 to May 24.

1979: Retired 23 straight Oakland batters on July 23 at Baltimore. After walking 1st batter he faced, he pitched 7.2 perfect innings and earned the win on a Pat Kelly slam.

Over 5 straight appearances starting July 23, he yielded only one hit and no walks and retired 36 of 38 batters faced . . . Also set down 18 of 19 hitters in consecutive appearances, June 22 & 23, both vs. Detroit, and won both in "sudden death" . . . Did not pitch in ALCS, but did relieve in 3 WS games (2, 5, 7).

1978: Hampered by tendinitis and finished with the 2nd highest era of his career (4.83) . . . Went 26 days between appearances, Sep. 2 to 26 . . . All 3 of his '78 losses were to the Yankees.

EARLY ORIOLES CAREER: After coming over from the Yankees on June 15, '76, he was 3-1 with 8 saves and a 2.57 era (IP-42, ER-12) . . . In '77, led O's relievers in games, saves and era.

YANKEES: Was originally signed for the Yankees by Sam Suplizio as an undrafted free agent off the Colorado State (Ft. Collins) campus in '72 . . . One year later, he led the Carolina League in saves (15), went 13-8 and fanned 160 in 105 innings.

Joined Yankees for 1st time in Aug. '74 then almost made the club at the start of '75 . . . However, an injury to Dick Tidrow (rhp) necessitated adding another righthander to the staff instead . . . Won the James Dawson Award as the top rookie in the Yankees' '75 spring camp.

Was recalled from minors July 16, '75 and went on to lead the staff in saves (8) . . . N.Y.'s Sparky Lyle was 5-7 with only 6 saves that year.

Behind the seven hit pitching of Bob Turley who fanned nine, the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated Paul Richards' White Sox, 3-1, in Baltimore's first American League game in 52 years. Chico Carrasquel, the Chicago shortstop, was the first to bat in the new stadium and singled off Turley.

Clint Courtney won the distinction of hitting the first home run in the brand new stadium (built on the site of the previous municipally owned ballpark used by the International League O's). It was a bases empty blast off Virgil Trucks who also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the fourth and was the losing pitcher.

1986 SEASON SUMMARY

In his 5th full season, he extended his consecutive games streak to 765 (10th longest all time) and his consecutive innings string to 6,937 (longest all time) . . . See details under "Ironman" below.

It was the 4th straight season he has led major league shortstops in: home runs (25), rbi (81), runs (98), and slugging pct. (.461) and, for the 3rd time in 4 years, in assists (482) . . . Finished 2nd by .001 in fielding pct (.982 to .983) to Toronto's Tony Fernandez . . . See "Fielding" below.

Tied for the A.L. lead in gwrbi (15) with Toronto's George Bell and the Yankees' Don Mattingly. He led the O's in at least 8 categories: at bats, runs, hits, doubles, homers, total bases (289), and in tying & go-ahead rbi (33).

Over the last 4 years, he has led A.L. in extra base hits and ranks 2nd in majors: Dale Murphy, Atl. (276); Ripken (271); Mattingly, NYY (264); Schmidt, Pha. (258), Rice, Bos. (245) .

In that same span, starting '83, he is 3rd in A.L. in doubles with 151 behind: Boggs, Bos. (164) and Mattingly (160).

JAPAN TRIP(S): Made his 2nd trip to Japan last fall with a U.S. Major League All-Star Team that went 6-1 against a team of all-stars from Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues . . . Cal led the team in hitting (.500, 14-7, 2bh-2, hr-2, rbi-6) while splitting shortstop duties with the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith.

Pirates' catcher Tony Pena was elected "mvp" after catching all but 6 innings on the tour (the only other catcher was Rich Gedman who was injured early on the trip.). Blue Jays outfielder Jesse Barfield led the Americans with 4 homers and 9 rbi while batting .450 (20-9).

Cal accompanied the Orioles on a 14-game trip in '84 and batted .315 (54-17) with 4 homers and 9 rbi as the O's went 8-5-1.

ORIOLES TOP 10: Already ranks 2nd in games played at shortstop for the O's (793), having passed Luis Aparicio (713) in '86 . . . Mark Belanger played in 1897 games at that position for the O's.

Also ranks in top 10 in following 10 categories: runs (529-9th), hits (927-9th), doubles (183-9th), triples (20-8th tie), home runs (133-7th), total bases (1549-9th), rbi (472-9th), gwrbi (69-7th), extra base hits (336-7th), and batting average (.289, 7th) . . . See "Orioles Career Batting Leaders" (page 8).

ODDS AND ENDS: Had a career high tying 17 game batting streak in June and finished the season with a 9 game string in tact . . . His club record string of 3 consecutive 100 runs seasons ended when he fell two short of the century mark.

Reached a late-season high of .307 on July 27 and a late-season low of .275 on Sep. 25 . . . Stole 2 of his 4 bases in one inning, at Oakland on Aug. 28 (2nd game) with Bill Krueger on the mound . . . Lee Lacy stole home and Juan Beniquez also swiped a base in that same canto.

Was 2nd in O's "mvp" vote behind Don Aase . . . Was 1st, other than Eddie Murray, to lead club in homers since Ken Singleton in '79. Eddie had led for 6 straight years.

1986 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

IRONMAN-GAMES: His 765 game string began May 30, '82 (better than 4-1/2 seasons ago), the day after he sat out the 2nd game of a doubleheader vs. Toronto at Baltimore (Floyd Rayford subbed for him at 3rd base).

It has been the longest active streak in the majors since Dale Murphy sat out a game last July 9, snapping his skein at 740. Ironically, Murphy missed only that one game all year so has played in 817 of the last 818 Braves games.

2.—1,307 . . . Everett Scott	7.—829 . . . Eddie Yost

4.—1,117 . . . Billy Williams	9.—798 . . . Nellie Fox
5.—1,103 . . . Joe Sewell	10.—765 . . . Cal Ripken

The 3 longest previous streaks in O's history were by: Brooks Robinson (463), Eddie Murray (444), and Billy Gardner (361).

IRONMAN-INNINGS: His string of 6,937 consecutive innings is believed to be the longest streak of its kind in major league history. It started on June 5, '82 at Minnesota (6 days and 5 games after the start of his consecutive games streak). The day before, June 4, Jim Dwyer had pinch-hit for him in the 9th inning, also at Minny. The 82 post-season innings he played in '83 are NOT included in the figures above.

At the time, both the games and innings strings began, he was playing 3rd base. He moved to shortstop July 1, '82. Thus, since that transition, he has not missed as much as a play at short.

Baseball researcher L. Robert Davids opines that Rip has erased the records of a couple of former Carmine Hose, who played in Boston in the early 1900s, the venerable Buck Freeman and Candy LaChance.

Freeman, a 1st baseman, played every inning over some 534 games (July 28, '01 to June 5, '05), and LaChance, an outfielder, didn't miss an inning in '02-'03-'04, extending his string to 424 games before sitting down on Apr. 28, '05. Both players, incidentally, were originally signed for the Red Sox by Ed Kenney.

Rip is the 1st big leaguer to have played in every inning for at least 2 consecutive years since Rudy York of the Tigers in '40 & '41. That's the same man who once nearly burned down the old Kenmore Hotel in Boston while smoking in bed.

In addition to Ripken, LaChance & Freeman, only one other major league player has not missed an inning in 3 seasons (not consecutive). That was Mickey Vernon in '42, '47 & '53 with the Pesky Gnats. Only 9 have done it over 2 seasons (not necessarily consecutive).

Four other O's have played in every game of a season: Brooks-4, Eddie-3, Gardner and Bobby Grich-once each. However, Murray is the only other to have played every inning in a season ('84 including 3 games as dh).

His monthly career highs include: 8 homers, Sep.–Oct. '85 & Apr. '84; 23 rbi, Sep.–Oct. '85, and .385 average (143-55) in Sep.–Oct. '83.

Led A.L. † A.L. Record

ASSISTS RECORD: In '84 he was credited with an A.L. record 583 assists, breaking Roy Smalley's '79 mark of 572. That year he also led major league shortstops in assists as well as in total chances (906), putouts (297) and double plays (122).

TOTAL CHANCES: His 880 successful total chances in '84 (excluding errors) were the most by an A.L. shortstop since the Twins' Leo Cardenas handled the same number in '69. The only major league shortstop to have handled more net chances in one season since World War II was the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith (909 in '80). The major league record is 984 by the Giants' Dave Bancroft ('22).

He's led the league in net chances in both '83 and '84, and was edged by one chance in '85 (by Fernandez). In '86 with 722, he finished 3rd behind: Spike Owen (746), and Fernandez (739). Ozzie Guillen was 4th (720).

3RD BASE: Played both 3rd and short after coming up in August '81, but started '82 season as O's regular 3rd baseman . . . Has played 77 games at 3rd ('81-6, '82-71) and has .970 percentage (TC-232, E-7).

Played there for the last time on July 8, '82 at Seattle after starting game at shortstop (Bob Bonner replaced him at ss) . . . His last start at 3rd base was on June 30, '82 home against Cleveland.

ERRORLESS GAMES: Had a string of 37 straight errorless games at short last year from June 28 thru Aug. 9, his longest at that position . . . In '82, he put together a stretch of 44 straight errorless games at 3rd base (Apr. 24 thru June 14).

CYCLE: He and Brooks Robinson are only 2 Orioles ever to hit for cycle in the club's 33 years in Balmer. Rip did it at Texas on May 6, '84 . . . Homered off Dave Tobik on final at bat to complete the job . . . Went 4-for-5 with 2 rbi . . . Brooks cycled at Chicago on July 15, '60.

IN THE CLUTCH: Has a career .288 average (782-225) with men in scoring position . . . Ranks tied for 20th on the major league gwrbi list (64) since it became an official statistic in 1980 despite the fact that his big league career did not begin until late 1981, and he didn't become a regular until 1982. . . . Everybody else in the top 20 has been a regular starting 1980 or before.

HOME RUNS: Has been amazingly consistent in annual home run production. His totals in 5 full years, starting '82: 28, 27, 27, 26 and 25 . . . See "Individual Batting, 1986 & Lifetime" on page 59 . . . See also "O's Lifetime Home Runs in each Park" on page 62.

VS. OPPONENTS: See "Orioles vs. Opponents" for notes on Cal's performances vs. each A.L. club . . . See also page 59 for his '86 and lifetime hitting stats against each team.

MAJOR HONORS AND AWARDS

ALL-STAR GAMES: Has been elected to A.L.'s starting lineup 3 straight years

. . . The only Oriole to have earned more consecutive starting appearances was Brooks Robinson ('71-'72-'73-'74).

In each of the last 2 years Cal has received more votes than any other A.L. player, and in each year George Brett was the runner-up . . . Last year with 1,486,806 votes, he was 2nd in the majors only to Darryl Strawberry (1,619,511).

In '85 Cal tallied a league leading 1,398,901 and in '84 drew 1,442,082 votes while beating out Alan Trammell at short and finishing 3rd in the overall A.L. election behind Brett (#1) and Lance Parrish (#2). He made his All-Star debut in '83 as a defensive replacement for Robin Yount after being appointed to the squad.

In the '86 game won by the A.L., 3-2, at Houston, Rip took an 0-for-4, and is now 1-for-10 lifetime . . . That hit was a single off Nolan Ryan at Minnesota in '85.

"MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE": Was co-winner of "MVO" award with Eddie Murray in '83, has finished 2nd twice and 3rd twice in 5 full seasons. Was runner-up to Murray in '85 and to Don Aase in '86 . . . Was 3rd in '82 behind Murray and Jim Palmer, and in '84 behind Murray and Mike Boddicker.

"PLAYER OF THE YEAR": Chosen Major League "Player of the Year" in '83 by The Sporting News, and A.L. "Player of the Year" by both TSN and Baseball America.

BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE/ORIOLES MUSEUM

Birthplace of the game's most prodigous performer, George Herman "Babe" Ruth in 1895, this historic rowhouse, located at 216 Emory Street in downtown Baltimore, features a variety of film clips on Ruth and the Orioles, as well as photo displays and memorabilia on the Babe, the Birds and Maryland greats such as Al Kaline, Jimmy Foxx, Lefty Grove and Home Run Baker.

The Babe Ruth House was rescued from the wrecker's ball by civic leaders and sports fans in '67. A non-profit foundation was formed and the Babe's birthplace and three adjoining rowhouses were renovated and opened to the public in '74 as the Babe Ruth Birthplace Museum.

In '82, a 2nd renovation was undertaken which broadened the theme of the Babe Ruth House to include Orioles history as well. In May '83, five months after closing its doors for its 2nd face-lifting, the Babe Ruth Birthplace/Official Orioles Museum re-opened to the public. The museum is open year round at a small cost to the public.
